BAYLOR UNIVERSITY MISSION STATEMENT

The mission of Baylor University is to educate men and women for worldwide leadership and service by integrating academic excellence and Christian commitment within a caring community.

BAYLOR ATHLETICS MISSION STATEMENT

To support the overall mission of the University by providing a nationally competitive intercollegiate athletics program that attracts, nurtures, and graduates student-athletes who, under the guidance of a high-quality staff, pursue excellence in their respective sports, while representing Baylor with character and integrity. Consistent with the Christian values of the University, the department will carry out this mission in a way that reflects fair and equitable opportunities for all student-athletes and staff.

Baylor University is an equal opportunity institution whose programs, services, activities and operations are without discrimination to sex, color or national origin and are not opposed to qualified handicapped persons.

The Baylor Athletic Media Relations Office appreciates your interest in Baylor football and looks forward to assisting you during the 2006 season. Our offices are located on the east side of Floyd Casey Stadium.

To assist in your coverage, please take time to read the information found on this page. These policies have been established in consideration of the media's needs, as well as those of Baylor's student-athletes and coaches to create a positive work environment for all.

DAVE CAMPBELL MEDIA CENTER

The Dave Campbell Media Center, located on the fifth level of the Floyd Casey Stadium skybox, opens three hours prior to game time. The working press box and TV booth are located in the center of the fifth floor, while the radio and coaches booths are at the far ends.

Meals will be served from two hours before game time until kickoff. Media credentials are required for admittance to the press box and for meals.

Game notes, programs and media guides are provided to all media members prior to the game. Play-by-play and quick statistics (at the end of each quarter), final team and individual statistics, defensive statistics, drive charts and coaches' quotes also are provided. Complete sets of all information is available approximately 20 minutes after the game.

Several "0-plus" telephone lines are available on a first-come, first-served basis in the working media area and complimentary wireless Internet is also available. On game day, Baylor telecommunications representatives will be on hand to handle any last-minute problems.

SIDELINES

Baylor follows guidelines set forth by the NCAA Public Relations Committee, the NCAA Football Rules Committee, the American Football Coaches Association and the National Press Photographers Association. Photographers are not permitted to shoot between the 25-yard lines and must have credentials visible at all times.

In an effort to insure the best possible working conditions for media photographers, uniformed security personnel will be patrolling the sidelines. Anyone holding a media pass who is not actively involved in coverage of the game will be escorted from the sideline. Similar procedures will be in effect in the press box.

WEEKLY PRESS LUNCHEON

Head coach Guy Morriss, defensive coordinator Bill Bradley, offensive coordintor Lee Hays and requested football student-athletes meet with the media each Tuesday preceding a game in Floyd Casey Stadium's Galloway Suite (third floor of the North end zone building). Lunch is served at 11:30 a.m., followed by interviews.

Requests for specific interviews with student-athletes or assistant coaches should be made to the Media Relations Office by 4 p.m., Sunday preceding the media luncheon. Players who appear at Tuesday's press conference will NOT be available following practice that day.

ADDITIONAL INTERVIEWS

In addition to the Tuesday media luncheon, Baylor student-athletes and coaches will be available for in-person or phone interviews following practice Tuesday through Thursday. Requests should be directed to Nick Joos.

All interview requests must be coordinated through the Athletic Media Relations Office with at least one day advance notice. Student-athlete's phone numbers will not be given out.

Coaches and student-athletes are not available for interviews on the Friday prior to a game or before the game on game day.

SUNDAY AVAILABILITY

Baylor head coach Guy Morriss will hold a media briefing each Sunday at 2 p.m. CT during the season to offer analysis of the preceding game and preview the upcoming opponent. Morriss' Sunday briefings are held in his Floyd Casey Stadium office.

Media members wishing to participate via phone may do so by contacting a member of the Baylor Athletic Media Relations staff. Excerpts and Sunday notes will be available on Baylor's official website, www.BaylorBears.com, by 6 p.m. CT each week.

POSTGAME INTERVIEWS

The Baylor locker room is located below the north end zone at Floyd Casey Stadium. The visiting locker room is located beneath the east stands.

Baylor coach Guy Morriss and requested players will be available in the team meeting room approximately 10 minutes following the game. Baylor's locker room will remain closed following games.

Baylor University is committed to a policy of equal access for both male and female reporters and photographers.

The SID of the visiting school will establish admittance policies to the visiting locker room.

BIG 12 TELECONFERENCE

In conjunction with the Big 12 Conference, Baylor head coach Guy Morriss will participate in the league's weekly teleconference. The teleconferences will be conducted each Monday from Aug. 28 until Dec. 4 from 10 a.m. until noon CT. Morriss' scheduled time is 11 a.m. to 11:10 a.m. CT each Monday.

Media representatives wishing to participate in the teleconference should consult the Big 12's weekly release or contact the league communications staff for further details.

A replay of the briefing will be available after 4 p.m. CT.

PRACTICE COVERAGE

All Baylor football practices are open to the media and public. As a general rule, video and still photographers may shoot the entire pre-practice (stretching period) and the first 15 minutes of actual practice time. At no time should photographers shoot from the end zone.

Following each session, head coach Guy Morriss will conduct a group interview with the media. A member of the AMR staff will be on hand at every practice to assist the media.

BAYLOR ON THE WEB

Statistics and news releases on Baylor football and all 18 Baylor athletic programs are available 24 hours a day, seven days a week at www.BaylorBears.com, the official website of Baylor Athletics and a member of CSTV Online, Inc.

MEDIA CREDENTIALS

Working media and photographer credentials for Baylor's 2006 home games against TCU, Northwestern State, Army, Kansas State, Kansas, Texas A&M and Oklahoma will be handled by Associate AD for Communications Nick Joos.

All requests should be made in writing by sports editors or sports directors of accredited media outlets on company letterhead. All requests should be made as early as possible and should be limited to working media only. Requests made within seven days of the game may not be considered.

All credential requests should be sent to: Nick Joos, Associate AD/Communications, Baylor Athletic Department, 150 Bear Run, Waco, TX 76711 ... FAX (254) 710-1369.

Credentials will be mailed to the requesting individual or organization if time permits or sent to the visiting school's sports information director for distribution. Credentials can also be picked up in the Media Relations Office located at Floyd Casey Stadium or at media will call in the elevator lobby of the Floyd Casey Stadium press box.

Media parking at Floyd Casey Stadium is available on a limited basis on the west side of the stadium. Requests for parking passes should be made well in advance to the Media Relations Office.

UNAUTHORIZED USE OF MEDIA CREDENTIALS

Credentials will be issued to working media only. Media credentials are not transferable and use by anyone other than members of the working media is unauthorized. Media credentials used in an unauthorized manner will be revoked immediately. News organizations allowing unauthorized individuals to use credentials will have their credentials revoked for the remainder of the year.

WEBSITES & NEW MEDIA

Web-based media sponsoring "message boards" or "chat rooms" that allow posting of anonymous information or rumors are ineligible for credentials or access to media functions. If a news-gathering medium has an online site that sponsors anonymous forums, they may continue to request credentials under their traditional medium (newspaper, magazine, radio or television), but will not be granted additional passes or access for online staff.

Any online service that places emphasis on the recruitment of potential student-athletes will not qualify for credentials.

Credentials will not be granted to any online agency operating sites that are in any way affiliated with gambling, or to "freelance" or "fan-based" sites that are not affiliated with a legitimate news gathering organization.

Live, real-time updates of Baylor home games are the property of Baylor University and unauthorized transmission of such is not permitted.

CollegePressBox.com is the official media website for Big 12 football. Access and download weekly game notes, statistics, media guides and more for the conference and each of its 12 member schools throughout the season. Login information will be distributed by the conference office to accredited media or you can apply for a password by sending an e-mail to password@collegepressbox.com.

BAYLOR/ISP RADIO NETWORK

Baylor University and ISP Sports enter the second year of a seven-year agreement that provides the company, recognized as the national leader in collegiate sports marketing, with exclusive multi-media rights for the school's highly successful intercollegiate athletics program.

With the partnership, the university is guaranteed an annual rights fee and shares in additional revenues, too. In consideration, ISP Sports receives the rights to all sales and marketing opportunities associated with Baylor sports, including a radio network for all sports, print advertising in various athletic department publications and all signage in university athletic facilities.

"We are very excited about partnering with ISP Sports," Baylor athletic Director Ian McCaw said. "The company has an exemplary track record of success and affords Baylor athletics an opportunity to enhance revenue, strengthen the Baylor Radio Network and expand our corporate partner relationships."

Baylor was the 25th major NCAA athletic program to align itself with ISP Sports, which is based in Winston-Salem, N.C., joining other prominent NCAA Division I-A institutions such as Auburn, Georgia Tech, Syracuse, UCLA, Vanderbilt and Wake Forest as ISP clients. Currently, ISP handles the multi-media rights for more than 30 institutions around the nation.

"We are delighted to be associated with a university of such high academic and athletic quality," ISP Sports president and CEO Ben Sutton said. "We hope to be an integral part of Baylor athletics for years to come."

Shawn Becket is in his second year as General Manager of the Baylor-ISP Network and as an ISP Assistant Vice President. He came to Waco from Auburn where he worked with the Auburn Network, also an ISP property, for six years. He is a 1996 graduate of The Ohio University and obtained a Master of Higher Education degree from Auburn University in 1998. Becket is married to the former Kristin Walsten of Manhattan, Kan.

Kris Kassel (Indiana, 1998) is the Associate General Manager of Baylor-ISP Sports having joined the staff from the University of Evansville, where he served as the Aces' Associate Athletic Director for External Affairs. He also has previous experience on the staffs for Crimson Tide Sports Marketing and Tiger Sports Properties. Doug McNamee (Baylor, 2003) serves as a marketing assistant and the "Voice of the Bears," John Morris (Baylor, 1980), also is a member of the Baylor-ISP team.

Morris enters his 20th year broadcasting Baylor football and men's basketball in 2006-07. The Kentucky native also produces the daily "State Farm Baylor SportsBeat," daily Big 12 reports and co-hosts the award-winning "Inside Baylor Sports" television show. He also serves as moderator for "Guy Talk," with head football coach Guy Morriss, during the season and the "State Farm Baylor Hour" January through May. This is Morris' 12th year as the signature voice of Baylor athletics since succeeding the legendary Frank Fallon. In November 2002, Morris was presented the Frank Fallon Sportsmanship Award by the Greater Waco Chamber of Commerce.

Three-time Academic All-American J.J. Joe returns for his third season as color analyst. The Bears' leading passer for four consecutive seasons from 1990-1993, Joe graduated as Baylor's career passing and total offense leader and is one of the school's most decorated student-athletes as a three-time Academic All-American. He currently works as a Vice President-Commercial Banking for Bank of Texas in Dallas and resides in Hurst, Texas.

J.J. JOE, RICKY THOMPSON, JOHN MORRIS

Ricky Thompson returns for his seventh season providing sideline color and analysis. Thompson is a former SWC long jump champion and was the Bears' leading receiver in 1975 before embarking on a seven-year NFL career. Thompson is a member of the Baylor Athletic Hall of Fame and is President of Waco's First National Bank of Central Texas.

Baylor's radio team also includes the multi-talented Craig Harper, who, in his 20th year as a member of the crew, serves as Executive Producer of the football broadcasts. Harper is the award-winning Director of Engineering for the Belo Corporation in Dallas and lives in Frisco, Texas.

Every play of Baylor Football 2006 plus "Guy Talk" and the "State Farm Baylor SportsBeat" are available worldwide on the internet at the official web site of Baylor athletics, www.BaylorBears.com.

For additional information on the multi-media rights held by the Baylor-ISP Network or for corporate partnership/advertising opportunities, call 254.710.3076 or visit us on the web at www.BaylorBears.com.

SEASON PREVIEW

2006 BEARS HAVE SIGHTS SET ON BOWL BID

Fresh off Baylor's most-successful football season in a decade, head coach Guy Morriss' Bears look to take the next step in 2006 and earn the program's first bowl bid since 1994.

Baylor will sport a new offensive look in 2006 as Morriss elected to install the spread formation after running multiple sets in his first three seasons in Waco. While the offense transitions to the spread, the Baylor defense must replace seven starters from last year's unit which ranked 63rd nationally in total defense (378.0 ypg).

"Anytime you start with a new system, who knows what's going to happen?," Morriss said. "I think especially early (in 2006), the defense is going to have to carry us.

"I just thought we needed a little better production," he added when discussing his off-season switch to the spread offense. "We were disastrous in the red zone (inside the opponents' 20-yard line) last year, and that obviously led to fewer points than you would like to put up. Just a handful of points here and there would have gotten us that sixth win and into a bowl game."

Baylor, which plays four of its first five and seven total home games in 2006, returns 51 lettermen, including 13 starters (seven on offense, four on defense and two specialists), from last year's team which went 5-6 overall and 2-6 in the Big 12 Conference.

The Bears open the 2006 campaign Sept. 3 in Waco against defending Mountain West Conference champion and longtime Southwest Conference rival TCU before the spotlight of the Fox Sports Net cameras.

2006 SCHEDULE FEATURES SIX 2005 BOWL TEAMS

After playing six of 11 games a year ago against teams that went on to earn bowl invitations, Baylor will face six 2005 bowl teams in 2006, including five of its eight Big 12 opponents. But, that's nothing new for coach Guy Morriss' program, as 21 times in his first 34 games (including 19 of 24 Big 12 contests) along the Baylor sideline he's faced an opponent who ended the season in a bowl game.

The Bears' 12 2006 opponents combined for an 82-57 (.590) record a year ago and six earned bowl bids—TCU (EV1.net Houston champion), Colorado (Champs Sports), Texas (Rose champion), Kansas (Fort Worth champion), Texas Tech (Cotton) and Oklahoma (Holiday champion). Baylor's eight 2006 Big 12 foes went 58-37 (.611) in 2005 and accounted for three of the league's five bowl victories.

Over his first three years in Waco, Morriss' Bears have tackled the nation's 55th- (2003), sixth- (2004) and 28th- (2005) most difficult schedules according to the NCAA.

Five of Baylor's six 2005 losses came at the hands of eventual bowl-bound teams while it knocked off 2005 EV1.net Houston Bowl participant Iowa State, 23-13, to record its first-ever Big 12 Conference road victory. All-told, the Bears ranked 28th among all I-A programs (No. 7 in the Big 12) in 2005 strength of schedule based on their opponents' cumulative winning percentage. Baylor's 2005 foes posted a 57-43 (.570) record.

EXPERIENCED COACHING STAFF SPORTS NEW FACES IN 2006

Baylor's coaching staff had three changes during the off-season with the arrival of assistant coaches Lee Hays (offensive coordinator), Wes Phillips (quarterbacks) and Gary Kinne (linebackers). Chris Lancaster, who coached the Bears' offensive line the past three years, will serve as running backs coach and special teams coordinator in 2006, while head coach Guy Morriss has returned to his roots as the team's offensive line coach.

In addition to his collegiate and NFL playing experience in the trenches, Morriss spent 11 of his 12 seasons as an assistant coach developing offensive lines in the NFL (three total seasons--two with New England and one with Arizona), CFL (one year at San Antonio) and the collegiate ranks (seven total seasons--four at Kentucky, one at Mississippi State and two at Valdosta State).

A fourth new face, Don Wnek, joined the Baylor staff as defensive line coach two days prior to the start of fall camp a year ago.

The 2006 Baylor coaching staff boasts a combined 174 years of experience in the professional, collegiate and high school ranks. Four members of the 2006 staff have been with Morriss since he first became a Division I-A head coach in 2001 at Kentucky--Larry Hoefer (safeties), Harold Jackson (receivers), Wesley McGriff (cornerbacks) and Lancaster.

The veteran Baylor coaching staff features three men, Morriss (one), defensive coordinator Bill Bradley (three) and Jackson (five), who combined to earn nine NFL All-Pro awards between them.

BAYLOR HONORED BY AFCA FOR FOOTBALL GRADUATION RATE

Baylor was one of 29 NCAA Division I-A schools nationally to have its football program honored with the 2006 Academic Achivement Award by the American Football Coaches Association.

Six institutions registered graduation rates of 90 percent or more for their freshman football classes of 2000-2001, including SMU, which earned top honors from the Touchdown Club of Memphis with its 100 percent mark. Baylor joined Big 12 schools Iowa State, Nebraska and Texas Tech among the 23 institutions who received honorable mention recognition with a graduation rate of 70 percent or higher.

The overall graduation rate of the survey-record 104 schools that responded was 58 percent. Since the NCAA began tracking graduation rates in 1991, the Baylor football program has averaged a 65.3 percent rate and seven times in the last nine years it has recorded a 60.0 percent or higher mark.

GETTING BETTER YEAR BY YEAR

In Baylor's three seasons under head coach Guy Morriss, the Bears have improved in 10 of the 14 major team statistical categories tracked by the NCAA. The categories in which Baylor ranked lower nationally in 2005 than it did in 2002, the year prior to Morriss' arrival, were total offense, passing offense, pass efficiency offense and rushing defense.

Those improvements have obviously made the Bears more competitive. In the season prior to Morriss' arrival, Baylor lost five games by at least 40 points, but his teams have combined for just five such setbacks and three of those came during his first season.

Morriss' Bears have won 11 games over the past three seasons, two more victories than the program posted from 1999 through 2002 and just two wins shy of its entire output from 1997 through 2002.

Here's a look at Baylor's NCAA and Big 12 statistical rankings in the year prior to Morriss' arrival compared to its standing at the end of his third season along the sideline:

ROAD SWEET ROAD

After years of playing better at home, Baylor posted a 3-3 record away from Floyd Casey Stadium in 2005 with two of those losses coming in overtime. It marked Baylor's first .500 or better road mark since 1995 (4-2).

The 2005 Bears snapped a 24-game overall road skid with their season-opening 28-23 win at SMU, won outside the Lone Star state for the first time since 1997 with their win at Army (20-10) and picked up their first-ever Big 12 road win with a 23-13 decision at Iowa State.

SUPPORTING THE BEARS

Baylor drew a total of 194,493 fans for its five-game 2005 home schedule, an average of 38,899 fans per game. The 2005 per-game average ranked as the sixth-largest in the stadium's 56-year history, and the highest since 1995 when the Bears averaged 40,456 for their four-game home slate. Baylor topped the 40,000 mark three times with a season-high (No. 25 home crowd all-time) 44,783 fans on hand for the Nov. 5 game against then-No. 2 and eventual national champion Texas.

A total of 510,541 fans saw the Bears play (home and away) in 2005, the fourth-largest season total in school history. Baylor's Oct. 22 game at Oklahoma drew a crowd of 83,456, the fifth-largest crowd ever to watch a Baylor game. The four larger crowds were two games at Michigan and two games at Ohio State.

SENIOR LEADERSHIP

Two years after fielding the nation's second-youngest football team, Baylor's 2006 hopes may well rest on the shoulders of its 32 seniors, 26 of whom are fifth-year players. Of those 32 seniors, 17 are listed No. 1 at their respective position on the Bears' preseason depth chart--eight on offense, seven on defense as well as its No. 1 place-kicker and punter.

The Baylor roster featured an average of just 17.3 seniors over its first 10 seasons in the Big 12 and only once prior to 2006 had the Bears carried more than 20 seniors (the 2002 roster listed 22 seniors) on the squad.

BELL TOLLS AGAIN IN 2006

Fifth-year senior Shawn Bell returns for his second season as Baylor's starting quarterback after leading the Bears to a 5-4 record as a starter a year ago. The program's all-time leader in completion percentage (.599), touchdown-to-interception ratio (2.71) and interception percentage (.013), he also ranks No. 7 in career passing efficiency (117.86), No. 8 in career 200-yard passing games (seven), No. 9 in career completions (318), No. 10 in career pass attempts (531) and No. 11 in career passing yards (3,084). Bell needs 13 touchdown passes, 106 completions, 271 attempts and seven 200-yard performances to break the school's career marks in those categories, as well as 916 yards to become the Bears' seventh career 4,000-yard passer.

Bell graduated from Baylor with an education degree in May 2006 and currently is pursuing a master's degree in sports management.

ZEIGLER, SHELTON AMONG BIG 12'S BEST RECEIVERS

Baylor senior wide receivers Dominique Zeigler and Trent Shelton combined for 87 receptions in 2005 and figure to challenge for 2006 postseason honors.

Zeigler stands fifth on Baylor's career receptions list with 112 grabs, tied for ninth in touchdown receptions (nine) and 11th in career receiving yards (1,182). He needs 72 receptions and 10 touchdown catches to surpass those school marks, but would need nearly 1,500 yards to break that record. A 2005 second-team All-Big 12 pick by the league's coaches, Zeigler hopes to join Gerald McNeil (1981-82-83) and Reggie Newhouse (2000-01-02) as the only Bears to lead the team in receptions for three straight seasons. In 2005, he led Baylor in receptions (48), receiving yards (563) and touchdown receptions (five).

Shelton ranks sixth on the Bears' career reception chart (102) and 12th on the school's all-time receiving yards list (1,126). He has recorded at least one reception in 33 straight games, the longest such string for a Bear since Newhouse ended his career with a school-record 34-game string that spanned the 2000, 2001 and 2002 seasons.

OFFENSIVE NUGGETS

- The Bears return 97.7 percent of their rushing yards and 77.4 percent of their receptions from 2005. Baylor returns its top five ground gainers and four of its top five receivers from a year ago.
- The Bears averaged 32.6 points in their five 2005 victories compared to 12.2 points in six losses. Baylor is 8-3 all-time under Guy Morriss when scoring at least 24 points, including 3-1 in 2005.
- The Bears' projected offensive line starters feature three fifth-year senior starters in left tackle Travis Farst, center Yancy Boatner and right guard Will Blaylock, a junior in left guard Chad Smith and a converted tight end in sophomore Jason Smith at right tackle.
- Fifth-year senior running back Paul Mosley will attempt to become just the fifth Baylor back, following in the footsteps of Ronnie Bull (1959-61), Walter Abercrombie (1978-81), Eldwin Raphel (1988-90) and Darrell Bush (1997-2000), to lead the Bears in rushing for at least three consecutive seasons. Last year, he rushed for a team-high 657 yards, an average of 59.7 yards per game.
- Mosley and fellow 2006 co-No. 1 running back Brandon Whitaker combined for 323 touches in 2005 without a fumble.
- Whitaker averaged 4.9 yards on 131 touches (101 rushes & 30 receptions) in 2005.

WILSON LEADS DEFENSE

Senior All-America candidate C.J. Wilson, who earned first-team 2005 All-Big 12 honors from six media outlets at cornerback, headlines a Baylor defense whose 2006 strength could well be the secondary. Wilson shared the Big 12 lead and tied for ninth nationally with a team-high five interceptions in 2005.

He also ranked seventh on the team in tackles with 45 stops and was tied for seventh in the Big 12 with 0.91 passes defended per game. Wilson needs five interceptions in his final Green and Gold campaign to crack the Bears' all-time list.

DEFENSIVE QUICK HITS

- Baylor returns 24 lettermen, including four starters, from last year's defensive unit which was No. 63 nationally in total defense (378.0 ypg).
- Baylor's total-defense average was its lowest since 1995 when it allowed 263.9 ypg and 43 yards less than it was in 2004.
- The 2005 Bears ranked No. 13 nationally in pass defense efficiency with a 106.2 rating.
- Baylor ranked No. 8 in the Big 12 and No. 65 nationally in scoring defense at 26.5 points per game, its fewest allowed since 1995 (15.1).
- The Bears yielded 18.8 points in their five 2005 wins compared to 32.8 in their six setbacks. Baylor's defense allowed 23 or fewer points in six of 11 games and fewer than 20 points in four games.
- Fifth-year senior cornerback Anthony Arline is one of two returning starters in the Baylor secondary. He had 24 tackles in 2005 and his 21 career starts are second-most of any 2006 Baylor returnee.
- Senior defensive end Marcus Foreman is slated to start along the Baylor defensive line for the second consecutive season. Baylor's top returning tackler from 2005, Foreman had 58 stops as a junior.
- Fifth-year senior defensive tackle M.T. Robinson has more career starts (22) than any Baylor returnee on either side of the ball.

OPPORTUNITY KNOCKS

Colin Allred's 25-yard interception return for a touchdown in the 2005 season-finale against Oklahoma State was Baylor's 13th non-offensive score in 34 games under head coach Guy Morriss. The 2005 Bears produced four such scores, including both punt and kickoff returns for touchdowns by return specialist Shaun Rochon, a 29-yard fumble return touchdown by Jamaal Harper and Allred's score.

The 2004 Bears forced just nine turnovers and Baylor ranked No. 113 nationally in turnover margin at -1.36 per game. But, in 2005, Baylor forced 29 opponent miscues (13 fumbles and 16 interceptions) to rank No. 30 nationally in turnover margin at +0.45 per game.

SPECIAL SPECIAL TEAMS

Without question, Baylor's special teams play has been the strongest facet of Guy Morriss' first three squads. The 2005 Bears ranked 14th nationally in kickoff returns (23.9 ypr), 16th in net punting (36.8 ypp) and 29th in punt returns (11.5 ypr). The year prior to Morriss' arrival, BU ranked 91st nationally in punt returns, 115th in kickoff returns and 117th in net punting.

The kicking game will again be in good hands with the return of 2004 Ray Guy Award winner Daniel Sepulveda and place-kicker Ryan Havens.

Sepulveda, a two-time All-American, tore the ACL in his right (non-kicking) knee over the 2006 Easter holiday weekend, but he is on track to return for the season-opener against TCU. His 44.85-yard career average ranks as the best in school history, second-best among all active Division I-A punters and ninth-best in NCAA history for players with 150 to 249 career punts.

Havens hit 22-of-24 PATs and 16-of-23 field goals as a junior for a team-high 70 points in his first season handling placements. He ranks No. 10 on Baylor's all-time field goals made list (16) and needs 21 points to crack its career kick scoring chart.

The 2006 return game, though, must replace Baylor's all-time kick return yardage leader Willie Andrews and 2005 Big 12 kickoff return leader Shaun Rochon. Andrews, the first two-time, first-team All-Big 12 coaches selection in school history, left Waco with five school career records to his credit, including marks for total kick returns (164) and total kick return yards (2,596). Rochon averaged 27.4 yards per kickoff return to lead the Big 12 and rank 14th nationally in 2005.

2005 BEARS POST BAYLOR'S FIRST FIVE-WIN SEASON IN DECADE

Baylor's season-ending 44-34 victory over Oklahoma State allowed the 2005 Bears to finish 5-6 on the season, the program's first five-win campaign since the 1995 team ended 7-4. The Oklahoma State win also gave the Bears two Big 12 wins in the same season for the first time in the league's 10-year history and ensured fifth-place in the South Division after nine consecutive sixth-place finishes.

Since posting the program's last winning season in 1995 at 7-4, Baylor has finished with five wins once (2005), four victories once (1996), three wins four times (2001, 2002, 2003, 2004), two victories three times (1997, 1998, 2000) and one win once (1999).

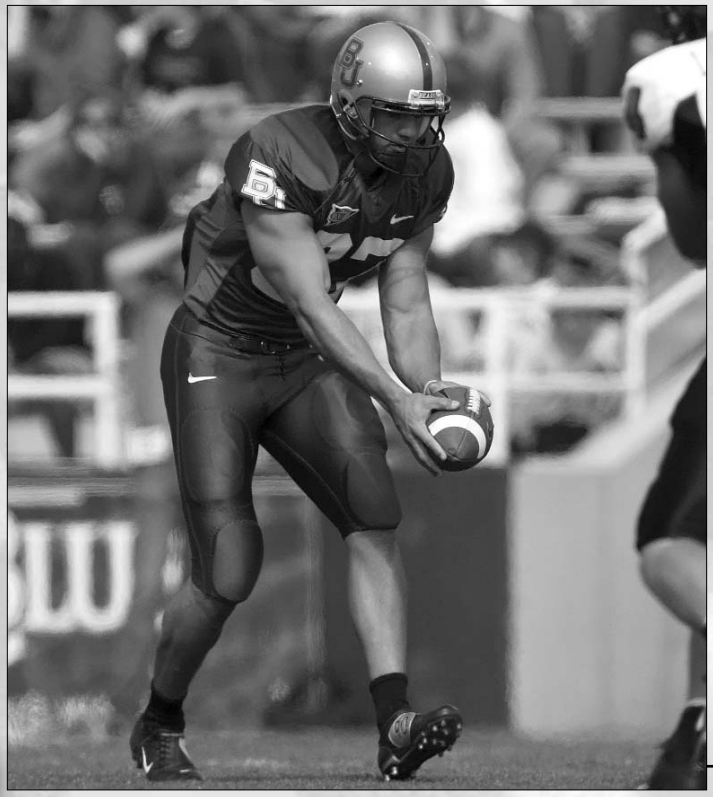
ALL-AMERICA CANDIDATE
RAY GUY AWARD CANDIDATE
ACADEMIC ALL-AMERICA CANDIDATE

2006: The 2004 Ray Guy Award winner as the nation's top collegiate punter, fifth-year senior Daniel Sepulveda hopes to become the trophy's first-ever two-time winner and join College and Pro Football Hall of Famer Mike Singletary as Baylor's only three-time All-Americans in his final season as a Bear ... He tore the anterior cruciate ligament in his right (non-kicking) knee during a pick-up basketball game over the 2006 Easter holiday weekend, underwent successful surgery April 27 to repair the damage and remained on track to return for the Bears' 2006 season-opener at press time ... Selected as the nation's No. 1 punter by The Sporting News' in its 2006 preview magazine ... Only the third national college football award winner in school history, following two-time Davey O'Brien pick Singletary and inaugural Thorpe Award recipient Thomas Everett, Sepulveda began his career as a walk-on linebacker but earned a scholarship as a punter after the 2003 season ... With a 3.46 cumulative grade-point average in accounting, the three-time first-team Academic All-Big 12 honoree received 2005 first-team CoSIDA/ESPN The Magazine Academic All-America honors as a junior to become just the third Baylor football player (and first since 1963) to earn both academic and athletic All-America accolades in the same season ... His 44.85-yard career punting average ranks as the best in school history, second-best among all active Division I-A punters and ninth-best in NCAA history for players with 150 to 249 career punts ... He may threaten former Texas A&M punter Shane Lechler's NCAA career record average (250 or more punts) of 44.7 yards from 1996-99 ... 29.4 percent of his career punts have pinned foes inside the 20-yard line ... Owns Baylor career marks for 50-(69) and 60-(14) yard punts, stands No. 2 on its all-time punt yards list (9,463 yards) and No. 3 in career punts (211) ... Needs 42 punts and 877 yards to become BU's all-time leader in both punts and punt yardage ... Has recorded at least one 50-yard punt in 31 of 34 career games with two or more such punts in 21 contests.



DANIEL SEPULVEDA

2005: Became only the sixth two-time All-American in school history and first since free safety Thomas Everett in 1985 and 1986 after ranking No. 2 in the Big 12 and No. 3 nationally with a 46.18-yard punting average ...That figure also ranked as the second-best single-season average in Baylor history, just ahead of his 2004 mark of 46.0 ypp ... Received first-team 2005 CoSIDA/ESPN The Magazine Academic All-America honors as well as second-team All-America recognition from The Associated Press, The Sporting News and Rivals.com, third-team status from collegefootballnews.com and honorable mention from Sports Illustrated ... 2005 first-team All-Big 12 by The Associated Press, ESPN.com, The Dallas Morning News, Austin American-Statesman and San Antonio Express-News; second-team all-league pick by the conference coaches, Kansas City Star, Houston Chronicle, Fort Worth Star-Telegram and Waco Tribune-Herald ... Also named to the Express-News' Big 12 All-Decade second-team honor squad ... 21.0 percent (13 of 62) of his punts pinned opponents inside their own 20 ... Registered 19 punts of 50-plus yards on the season, including six of 60 or more yards ... Over the season's final three games he averaged 48.0 yards per punt with nine of his 23 kicks over that stretch registering 50-plus yards ... Named Big 12 Special Teams Player of the Week for his performance in BU's season-ending 44-34 victory over Oklahoma State when he averaged a season-best 51.7 yards on six punts with a 46.2-yard net average ... His shortest punt, a 42-yarder, pinned the Cowboys at their own 17-yard line, while he had three punts of 50-plus yards, including a 68-yarder, the third-longest of his career ... Averaged 46.2 yards on a season-best and career-high tying nine punts at Missouri with three of 50-plus yards; which included a career-long 78-yard boot, the eighth-longest in school history ... On five punts vs. Samford he averaged 51.0 yards with two inside the 20 and three 50-yarders ... Averaged 44.0 yards or better eight times and had season-high three 50-yarders four times ... Served as the Bears' holder on field goals and PATs ... Earned first-team Academic All-Big 12 honors for the third consecutive year and was named to the fall Big 12 Commissioner's Honor Roll ... Played 127 snaps, all on special teams, to pick up third letter ... Totaled two special teams tackles, both solos.

2004: As a sophomore, Sepulveda captured the Ray Guy Award as college football's top punter and earned second-team All-America honors from both the Walter Camp Foundation and Rivals.com, third-team recognition from The Associated Press, Collegefootballnews.com and CollegeSportsReport.com and honorable mention status from S*ports Illustrated* ... Also received All-Sophomore recognition from both Collegefootballnews.com and CollegeSportsReport.com ... Garnered first-team All-Big 12 honors from the league's coaches, The Associated Press and ESPN.com as well as six of seven newspapers around the league who select conference honor squads ... Ranked No. 2 in the Big 12 and No. 3 nationally in punting (45.97 ypp) ... Placed 41.9 percent of his punts (26 of 62) inside the opponent's 20-yard line and his net average of 42.5 ypp ranked No. 2 nationally ... Averaged 43.0 yards or better in seven games, including a pair of 50.0-yard average contests ... Improved net punting mark from 37.4 ypp as a freshman in 2003 to 42.5 ypp in 2004 ... His sophomore season average of 45.97 ypp was the second-best in school history behind Ty Atteberry's BU single-season mark of 46.35 yards ... 24 punts of 50-plus yards, including five of 60-plus yards ... Owned two of the Big 12's top punts in 2004, a then-career-long 69-yarder vs. Missouri and a 66-yarder at No. 5 Texas ... Averaged 43.9 yards per kick at Texas Tech and placed a career-high tying five of seven punts inside the Red Raider 20-yard line ... Five of his seven punts against Mizzou pinned the Tigers inside their own 20, as he averaged 50.6 yards per kick ... Five of six punts against Texas State were 50 or more yards, as he averaged a career-best 55.0 yards per kick ... Also recorded a career-high tying five punts of 50 or more yards (in seven attempts) against No. 2 Oklahoma, four of which pinned the Sooners inside the 20-yard line ... Had one solo tackle ... Second-team CoSIDA Academic All-District VI selection ... Earned first-team Academic All-Big 12 honors and Baylor's special teams MVP award for the second straight season ... Named to the Big 12 Commissioner's Honor Roll for both the fall and spring semesters ... Received second letter and served as special teams captain ... 72 snaps played.

2003: Despite not having punted since junior high school, Sepulveda earned first-team All-Big 12 honors from College Football News and second-team recognition from league coaches ... The redshirt freshman also was selected first-team Academic All-Big 12, earned a spot on The Sporting News freshman All-Big 12 squad and was named to that publication's Dream Team ... Honorable mention All-Big 12 by The Associated Press ... Baylor's special teams MVP ... A mid-year addition to the Ray Guy Award list, he ranked third in the Big 12 and 23rd nationally with his 43.10 yard average ... His average ranked fifth nationally among all freshman punters and 23 of his punts pinned opponents inside their 20-yard line ... ALL-AMERICA CANDIDATE
THORPE AWARD CANDIDATE

2006: All-America and 2006 Thorpe Award candidate C.J. Wilson is slated to start at cornerback for the second consecutive season ... Rated as the nation's 12th-best cornerback by The Sporting News in its 2006 preseason magazine ... With five career picks, the senior needs five interceptions in his final Green and Gold campaign to crack Baylor's all-time list ... One of five returning Bear defenders with double-digit career starts under their belt, Wilson has 13 starts on his Baylor resume and is listed No. 1 on the depth chart at cornerback.

2005: One of six Baylor defenders to start every game in 2005, Wilson earned first-team All-Big 12 honors from Collegefootballnews.com, the Houston Chronicle, Austin American-Statesman, San Antonio Express-News, Fort Worth Star-Telegram and Waco Tribune-Herald, second-team recognition from both The Dallas Morning News and The Associated Press, honorable mention from the league's coaches as a junior ... Finished No. 7 on the squad in tackles with 45 stops, including 33 solos, one tackle for loss and a fumble recovery ... Also recorded a team-high five interceptions and his five pass breakups were No. 3 on squad ... Shared the Big 12 lead and tied for ninth nationally with five interceptions on the season (0.45 ipg) ... Tied for seventh in Big 12 with 0.91 passes defended ... Helped the Baylor defense rank No. 3 in the Big 12 and No. 13 nationally in pass efficiency defense with a 106.2 rating ... His five picks were the most by a Baylor defender since Derrick Cash had a like number in 2001 ... Registered six (five interceptions and one fumble recovery) of Baylor's 29 turnovers on the year ... Had a career-long 38-yard interception return at Oklahoma, the longest for a Bear since Cash's 60-yarder vs. Samford in 2002 ... Three of his five picks came away from home ... Registered two or more tackles in every 2005 start, five or more six times ... Had a career-high tying six tackles twice — against Nebraska (four solos) and at Iowa State (four solos) ... Totaled five tackles (four solos) vs. No. 2 Texas ... Posted five tackles (one solo), one interception and a pass breakup against No. 16 Texas Tech ... Credited with five tackles, all solos, one pick and his first career TFL (4 yards lost) on a career-high 108 snaps at Oklahoma ... Also had five tackles (two solos) at Army ... Recorded his first career interception and a career-best three pass breakups vs. Samford ... One of eight Bears to play at least 700 downs in 2005, he ranked fourth among Baylor defenders with 792 snaps played ... Selected Baylor's best defensive skill player ... Earned third varsity letter.

2004: Played in all 11 games and made two starts as a sophomore to receive second letter ... Had 22 tackles, 19 of which were solos, to rank No. 11 on the squad ... Tallied seven multi-tackle efforts on the year and was No. 4 on the team in pass breakups with three ... Also had a fumble recovery, a forced fumble and a quarterback hurry to his credit ... Tallied a then-career-high tying four tackles (all solo) at No. 25 Oklahoma State ... Also recorded three tackles in three other games ... Made first career start against Texas State and started the Missouri contest ... Had first career fumble recovery at UAB and first pass breakup at No. 5 Texas ... His fumble recovery was one of only four the Bears' recovered for year ... Played 509 snaps.

2003: Appeared in all 12 games for the Bears as a true freshman to earn his first varsity letter ... Credited with 13 tackles, including nine solos ... Ten tackles came in the year's last four games ... Then-career-best four tackles at No. 1 Oklahoma, included two solos ... Also made three tackles, all solos, at Kansas State, and had two solo tackles vs. Oklahoma State.

High School: Terrell High School, Terrell, Texas ... Named District 16-4A Defensive Player of the Year, helping the Tigers to a runner-up district finish and a 9-2 record ... Had 37 tackles, six interceptions and seven pass breakups in 2002 as a first-team all-district selection ... Named to Texas Super Team honor squad by Texas Football magazine and was a Texas Top 300 selection by the same publication ... Also caught nine passes for 102 yards and a touchdown ... Did not play football as a junior ... Focused on basketball and track early in prep career ... Two-time all-district honoree in basketball ... District champion and regional qualifier in the high jump as a senior ... Named the 2003 Terrell Tribune Co-Athlete of the Year ... Also earned T-Award for citizenship ... Listed in Who's Who Among American High Students, High School Athletes and High School Scholars ... Coached by Tom Ed Gooden at the District 16-4A school.

ALL-AMERICA CANDIDATE

2006: All-America candidate Dominique Zeigler enters his senior year as the Bears' No. 1 Z receiver ... He figures to threaten nearly every Baylor career receiving record, as he stands No. 5 on its all-time reception list (112), tied for ninth in touchdown grabs (10) and No. 11 in receiving yards (1,182) ... Needs 72 receptions and 10 touchdown grabs to surpass those school marks, but would need 1,469 yards to break Gerald McNeil's all-time receiving yardage mark ... The 11th player in school history to lead the Bears in receptions in back-to-back seasons with his 55- and 48-catch efforts the past two years, he hopes to join McNeil (1981-82-83) and Reggie Newhouse (2000-01-02) as the only players to pace Baylor in three consecutive campaigns ... Brings a 21-game string with at least two receptions into 2006 ... He has more career starts (20) than any returning Baylor offensive player and is just one of three returnees with 20-plus career starts under their belt.

2005: Started all 11 games for the Bears and earned second-team All-Big 12 honors from the league's coaches and honorable mention from The Associated Press ... Led the Bears with 48 receptions for team-highs of 563 yards and five touchdowns ... Averaged 11.7 yards per catch to rank No. 1 among Bears with at least 10 receptions ... Ranked No. 9 in Big 12 and No. 87 nationally with 4.36 receptions per game and was No. 12 in the league with 51.18 receiving yards per contest ... Recorded two or more receptions in every game with three or more in 10 consecutive games to close the year ... Fashioned second career three-game string with at least one touchdown grab ... Posted a season-high nine receptions for a career-high 141 yards and one touchdown at Oklahoma, an effort which equaled the 26th-best game in school history and that was the program's best since Reggie Newhouse's 164-yard day at Cal in 2002 ... Caught a career-long 55-yard fourth quarter touchdown pass from Shawn Bell at OU that brought the Bears within 27-25 ... Hauled in six passes for 68 yards and one touchdown against Nebraska and snagged five balls at both Texas A&M (for 66 yards and no scores) and Missouri (37 yards and one touchdown) ... 27 of his 48 receptions and three of his five touchdown grabs came on the road ... Shared Baylor's offensive team MVP honor with running back Paul Mosley ... His two kickoff returns came on onside kick recoveries ... One of 14 Bears to play 600-plus snaps in 2005, he saw action on 657 downs ... An outstanding high jumper, he did not participate in the Bears' indoor or outdoor track seasons.

2004: Saw action in 10 games and made nine starts to receive second letter ... Led the 2004 Bears in receptions (55), was No. 2 in receiving yards (536) and touchdown catches (five), No. 6 in yards per catch (9.7 ypc) ... Ranked No. 4 in Big 12 and No. 35 nationally with 5.50 receptions per game and was No. 10 in Big 12 and No. 101 nationally with 53.6 receiving yards per outing ... His 55 receptions ranked No. 6 on BU's single-season chart ... Hauled in seven passes for 71 yards at No. 25 Oklahoma State, his seventh game of five or more receptions on the year ... Tallied a school-record tying and career-high 12 receptions for career-best 121 yards against Texas A&M with two touchdowns and the game-winning two-point conversion in the Bears' 35-34 upset ... Totaled nine receptions for 109 yards in the fourth quarter and overtime vs. the Aggies while scoring 14 of BU's final 22 points ... His effort against Texas A&M included a then-career-long 32-yard grab, while his 12 catches equaled the most by a Big 12 player in 2004 ... Caught at least one touchdown pass in three of his last five appearances while totaling 33 receptions for 337 yards over that stretch ... Registered at least two receptions in every game ... Also had one rush for three yards ... Suspended from season finale vs. No. 2 Oklahoma for a team rules violation ... Played 621 snaps ... Two-sport star did not participate in track during either the 2005 indoor or outdoor season.

2003: Played in 10 games at wide receiver as a true freshman to earn his first varsity letter ... Caught nine passes for 83 yards ... Had three multiple-reception outings, including a then-career-best three catches for 29 yards at Kansas State ... Also had two catches for 23 yards vs. No. 19 Texas and two grabs for 15 yards against Texas Tech ... Longest catch of the year was a 16-yard reception against the Longhorns ... Also a member of the Baylor track and field team ... Earned All-Big 12 honors in the long jump by finishing second at the 2004 Big 12 Indoor Championships with a personal best mark of 7.48 meters (24-6 1/2) ... Personal best in the high jump in 2004 was 2.02 meters (6-7 1/2) at the Oklahoma Indoor Classic ... He recorded a season-best and NCAA regional qualifying long jump mark of 24-6 to finish sixth and earn all-conference honors at the Big 12 Outdoor Championships ... Won the high jump at the Dr Pepper Invitational with a season-best-tying mark of 6-6 3/4.

High School: Harker Heights High School, Killeen, Texas ... Played quarterback as a senior and was named District 17-4A MVP ... Completed 89-of-166 passes for 1,511 yards and 15 touchdowns and added 414 yards rushing on 70 attempts in leading the Knights to an 11-2 record and the district title ... MVP of 2003 Texas High School Coaches Association North-South All-Star Game ... A two-year starter at receiver as a junior and sophomore, he earned first-team all-district honors both seasons ... Was leading the Austin area in receptions with 23 catches for 557 yards as a junior when he suffered a torn ACL knee ligament in the sixth week of the season ... Named to the all-academic team in both track and football ... As a senior, captured the Texas state high jump crown and was third in the long jump ... Recorded nation's best long jump and the sixth-best high jump mark in final prep season ... Coached by Ross Rogers at the District 17-4A school ... RYAN
HAVENS
Odessa, Texas

PK | 5-10 | 188 | SR-3L

2006: Senior Ryan Havens returns for his second season as Baylor's place-kicker and his fourth handling its kickoff duties ... Despite kicking just one season, his 16 made field goals rank No. 10 on Baylor's all-time chart and he enters his final campaign 21 points shy of the Bears' career top-10 kick scoring list.

2005: Having not kicked a field goal or PAT in a collegiate game prior to his junior season, Havens may well have been the 2005 Bears' biggest surprise ... He hit 22-of-24 PATs and 16-of-23 field goals on the year for a team-high 70 points, the third-best single-season total ever by a Baylor kicker and the highest total by any Bear since 1994 ... He earned Big 12 Special Teams Player of the Week honors after nailing a career-high three field goals, two PATs and limiting Iowa State to an average starting field position of its 22-yard line on six kickoffs with four touchbacks ... Hit a career-long 49-yard field goal against the Cyclones and also converted from 21 and 36 yards in the Bears' historic 23-13 victory ... His 49-yard field goal at Iowa State was the longest by a Bear since Adam Stiles' 50-yarder at Texas A&M in 2001 ... BAYLOR WALK-ON PROGRAM

Baylor's 2006 roster features six student-athletes who began their collegiate careers as walk-ons but have since earned a scholarship from head coach Guy Morriss and his staff.

The most notable walk-on turned scholarship recipient is senior punter Daniel Sepulveda, who won the 2004 Ray Guy Award as the nation's top collegiate punter. Sepulveda, having not punted since early in his high school career, became Baylor's top punter as a redshirt freshman in 2003 and was placed on scholarship by Morriss after earning second-team All-Big 12 honors in January 2004.

GUY MORRISS

Fourth Season at Baylor

HEAD COACH | OFFENSIVE LINE

"YOU CAN'T COUNT ON BEATING BAYLOR ANYMORE. THEY ONLY FINISHED 5-6 LAST SEASON, BUT THEY SCARED THE DICKENS OUT OF SOME PEOPLE. GUY MORRISS REALLY KNOWS WHAT HE'S DOING AND HAS HIS KIDS PLAYING HARD."

— OPPOSING COACH IN ATHLON SPORTS 2006 PREVIEW MAGAZINE

As Guy Morriss starts his fourth year patrolling the Baylor sideline as head coach and first as offensive line coach, his transformation of the school's football fortunes has the Bears poised to take the next step and earn their first bowl bid since 1994.

Introduced as Baylor's 24th head football coach on Dec. 11, 2002, Morriss inherited a proud program that had fallen on hard times and produced just 15 victories in the six seasons prior to his arrival. However, in three years he and his staff have already posted more wins both overall (11) and in Big 12 play (four) than the Bears recorded in the four seasons (nine/one) before their arrival in Waco. Morriss' Big 12 win total matches the program's output over its first seven years of league membership. In short, he and his staff have placed the program on solid ground for future success.

Under Morriss' leadership, the 2005 Bears fashioned the school's most successful season in a decade by posting a 5-6 record, the program's first five-win campaign since a 7-4 mark in 1995. Baylor came within a whisker of its season-long goal of reaching a bowl game for the first time since 1994, but it suffered two heartbreaking overtime losses on the road to dash its postseason hopes.

The 2005 season also saw Baylor post multiple Big 12 victories (2-6) in the same season for the first time in the league's 10-year history; finish fifth in the Big 12 South Division for the first time after nine years of sixth-place showings; and end road losing streaks of 24 games overall (with a season-opening victory over SMU) and 37 games in Big 12 play (with its first-ever Big 12 road win at Iowa State).

A school-record tying 14 players earned 2005 academic All-Big 12 honors, including a school-best eight first-teamers. A school-record 12 Bears earned 2005 SBC All-Big 12 Conference honors with outside safety Willie Andrews becoming the program's first two-time first-team All-Big 12 coaches selection. Punter Daniel Sepulveda became the first Bear since 1963 (and only the third ever) to earn academic and athletic All-America honors in the same season.

In three seasons under Morriss, 21 Bears have earned all-conference honors from the Big 12 coaches, and his staff has produced three of the program's five all-time first-team selections, its only (Andrews) two-time first-team performer and one (Sepulveda) of its two three-time honorees. Andrews, one of three Bears to play in a season-ending All-Star game, was drafted by the New England Patriots in the seventh round of the 2006 NFL Draft.

Baylor's 2005 on-field resurgence also showed at the box office, where it averaged 38,899 fans for its five 2005 home games, the program's highest single-season home average since 1995 and the sixth-highest mark all-time. Since Morriss' arrival in Waco, the Bears' attendance at Floyd Casey Stadium has increased some 28 percent from its 2002 average of 28,018.

Playing with the nation's second-youngest team in 2004, Morriss' second year saw Baylor post a 3-8 overall record and deliver one of the greatest victories in school history, as the unranked Bears knocked off No. 16 Texas A&M, 35-34, in overtime at Waco. That upset win, Baylor's first over the Aggies since 1985, ended both the Bears' 13-game losing and 18-game winless strings to its longtime rival from College Station. The A&M victory also marked BU's first over a nationally ranked opponent since 1998 (and first over a rated league foe since 1995), which snapped a 22-game skid to ranked teams. For the second consecutive year, Baylor signal callers set a school single-season record for completion percentage (.595), despite the fact that three different Bears drew at least one start under center, and its quarterback trio established a new school one-season mark for completions (235).

The 2004 campaign also saw Sepulveda earn the Ray Guy Award as the nation's top collegiate punter and become only the third individual in program history to win a season-ending national college football award, joining Mike Singletary (two-time Davey O'Brien winner) and Thomas Everett (Thorpe Award). Sepulveda, who also became the first Bear to earn All-America honors on the gridiron since 1995, was one of two Baylor players (Andrews was the other) to garner 2004 first-team All-Big 12 honors from the league's coaches. Oklahoma (eight) and Texas (six) were the only schools with more first-team honorees than Baylor.

It marked just the second time in the Big 12's 10-year history that Baylor placed two student-athletes on the coaches' first team, and first since 1996. The 2005 NFL Draft saw the Kansas City Chiefs select DE Khari Long in the sixth round, the highest a Bear had been selected since 1999. Long was one of three Baylor players to earn 2005 postseason All-Star game invites.

Known for his no-nonsense approach and aggressive recruiting, Morriss' Bears finished 3-9 in his rookie season. However, there were enough moments of youthful brilliance along the way to give Baylor's tradition-rich program hope for the future.

After dropping the first two games of the 2003 campaign, Baylor put together a three-game win streak highlighted by a 42-30 victory over two-time Big 12 North division champion Colorado in the Bears' league opener. The win string was BU's longest in some seven seasons and the Colorado triumph allowed Morriss to become just the third Baylor coach since 1950 (and only the sixth ever) to win his conference debut on the Bear sideline.

Morriss' first season also saw the Baylor defense limit then-No. 1 Oklahoma to a then-season-low 56 rushing yards (only national champion LSU held the Sooners to fewer yards on the ground) and register the sixth-highest one-season sack total (29) in school history and its best mark since 1994. The BU offense produced its first 1,000-yard rusher since 1995 in All-Big 12 running back Rashad Armstrong and its quarterbacks completed a then-school-record 56.7 percent of their passes, while the Bears' special team units recorded four scores.

Five Bears earned 2003 all-conference honors and three players participated in season-ending All-Star games, as did Morriss, who served as the head offensive coach for the Gray squad at the 2003 Blue-Gray All-Star Classic. He was joined on the Gray's sideline by center Cedric Fields.

In addition to the program's improvement on the field, it also continues to make strides in the classroom. Since the fall of 2003, Morriss' Bears have averaged a 2.44 semester grade-point average with a high mark of 2.46 for the fall 2003 semester. An average of 39 football players since Morriss' arrival have been named to the Big 12 Commissioner's Honor Roll which salutes student-athletes for achieving a 3.00 mark or better during each semester.

Off the field, BU players continued to give back to the community by making numerous appearances at local schools and participating in several service projects throughout the area.

Morriss came to Waco from Lexington, Ky., where he spent the previous six seasons helping resurrect the Kentucky football program, the last two as the Wildcats' head coach.

At Kentucky, Morriss and his accomplished staff were credited with rebuilding Kentucky's relationships with high school coaches, as well as earning the respect of his players with a fair, no-nonsense approach. He beefed up the team's off-season conditioning by instituting stringent 6 a.m. workouts, designed to toughen it physically and mentally.

In 2001, Morriss took over a Wildcat program in disarray. With NCAA probation looming in the school's immediate future, Morriss was introduced as Kentucky's head coach on Feb. 6, 2001, the day before national signing day, and began to stabilize the program.

Despite the inherent obstacles, Morriss confidently rallied the Wildcat players and staff. In his first season as a head coach in 2001, he guided UK to a 2-9 record, which included three losses by four points or fewer to Southeastern Conference opponents.

A season highlight included a 56-30 win at Vanderbilt that resulted in National Player of the Week honors for Wildcat quarterback Jared Lorenzen, who threw for 453 yards and six scores against the Commodores.

In the second half of the 2001 season, Kentucky led the SEC in passing offense (376 yards per game) and ranked third in total offense (456.2 per game) while scoring an average of 29.8 points.

Year two saw the fruits of Morriss' leadership become quickly evident. The 2002 Wildcats turned some heads with a 7-5 record, including wins over Mississippi State, eventual SEC West Division champion Arkansas and 17th-ranked Louisville. The seven-win season in 2002 was only the fifth since 1955 for Kentucky, which received votes in the Associated Press Top 25 poll. UK's defeats included a four-point setback vs. South Carolina, a seven-point loss at then-No. 7 Florida and an unbelievable three-point defeat on the game's final play against then-No. 17 LSU.

In Morriss' two seasons as Kentucky's head coach, 10 Wildcats earned All-SEC recognition, three were named All-American and 43 garnered academic All-SEC honors. In addition, three players were selected in the NFL Draft, including Dewayne Robertson, a 2003 first-round pick of the New York Jets and the first UK defender taken in the first round since Art Still's 1978 selection by the Kansas City Chiefs. In his six seasons all-told in Lexington, four UK offensive linemen were selected first-team all-conference and three earned freshman All-America honors.

The Wildcats ranked in the nation's top 20 in passing offense five of Morriss' six years with the program and in the nation's top 15 in total offense in three of those seasons. In 1996, the year before Morriss' arrival, UK finished 109th nationally in total offense.

Morriss spent four seasons as Kentucky's assistant head coach and offensive line coach before being promoted to head coach. During his time as an assistant, the Wildcats twice earned bowl invitations and their offense scored more points and generated more yards than any previous four-year period in school history.

Recognized as an outstanding teacher of line play, Morriss began his coaching career as an offensive line assistant coach with the New England Patriots from 1988 to 1989 under head coach and NFL Hall of Famer Raymond Berry. He was the offensive coordinator at Mansfield (Texas) High School in 1991. Morriss was then selected as the head coach of the Washington Marauders of the Professional Spring Football League in 1992, but the league ceased operations prior to the start of the season.

From 1992 to 1993, he coached the offensive line at Valdosta State (Ga.) University before returning to the NFL in 1994 as a member of Buddy Ryan's Arizona Cardinals staff. Morriss then spent the 1995 campaign with the Canadian Football League's San Antonio Texans, where he worked with current Baylor defensive coordinator Bill Bradley. That year, San Antonio was second in the CFL in points scored and advanced to the semifinals of the Grey Cup playoffs.

Prior to his Kentucky tenure, Morriss spent one season at Mississippi State, where he coached the offensive line in 1996. Bulldogs' offensive tackle Brent Smith garnered first-team All-SEC honors and was a second-round draft selection by the NFL's Miami Dolphins.

Morriss first made headlines in the Lone Star state as an All-Southwest Conference guard at TCU. A three-year letterwinner for the Horned Frogs, Morriss was a two-time All-SWC performer (second team as a junior in 1971 and first team in 1972) who started 28 games in his collegiate career. Following his final collegiate season, he played in four all-star games — the Blue-Gray Game, the Senior Bowl, the Coaches' All-America Game and the College All-Star Game. Morriss captained the Horned Frogs in his senior year and was inducted into the school's athletic Hall of Fame in 1997.

A 1973 TCU graduate (secondary education), Morriss was a second-round draft pick of the Philadelphia Eagles who went on to play 11 seasons at center for the franchise. He helped the Eagles to four consecutive playoff berths (1978-82) under legendary coach Dick Vermeil, including NFC East crowns in 1979 and 1980, and was a starter on the organization's 1980 NFC championship team that played in Super Bowl XV. Morriss, an Eagles' team captain for five seasons, was selected to the 1981 All-Pro team.

From 1984 to 1987 Morriss played for the New England Patriots, helping Berry's team to playoff appearances in 1985 and 1986. He was a member of the Patriots' 1985 AFC championship squad and played in Super Bowl XX.

When the 2004 Super Bowl was played in Houston, The Dallas Morning News named Morriss to its All-Texas High School Super Bowl Team. He is one of only two active NCAA Division I-A coaches (his Eagle teammate, current North Carolina head coach John Bunting, is the other) to have played in the Super Bowl.

Morriss and his wife Jackie are the parents of five daughters: Colleen, Melanie, Kerry, Savannah Rae and Austin Leigh. The couple also has four grandchildren--Colin (5), Aidan (4), Kade (3) and infant Kyleigh.

BILL
BRADLEY
Third Season at Baylor

DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR

Bill Bradley, who inherited a unit which ranked 105th and 112th nationally in total and scoring defense, respectively, begins his third season as Baylor's defensive coordinator.

BU's defenders have shown marked improvement the past two years, allowing some 72 total yards and 11.4 points fewer than they did in 2003 while producing a dozen All-Big 12 performers.

Bradley's 2005 Baylor defense ranked 13th nationally in pass efficiency defense (106.18), while standing No. 57 in pass (216.3 ypg), No. 63 in total (378.0 ypg), No. 65 in scoring (26.5 ppg) defense and No. 74 against the run (161.7 ypg). The Bears' 2005 defensive marks for total, rush and scoring defense all ranked as the program's lowest since 1995 and eight defenders earned All-Big 12 recognition.

The Baylor pass defense, which ranked 101st among all NCAA I-A programs in 2003, was rated No. 62 after Bradley's first season in Waco.

Bradley joined Guy Morriss' program from the National Football League's New York Jets, where he had spent three years (2001-03) as the team's defensive backs coach. The Jets ranked among the NFL's top 10 in pass defense (2003), twice advanced to the playoffs (2001 and 2002) and won the 2002 AFC East title in his tenure on coach Herman Edwards' staff.

Prior to working for the Jets, Bradley served in the same capacity with the Buffalo Bills from 1998 to 2000. Buffalo led the AFC in pass defense in 1999 and ranked second the following year. The Bills, who advanced to the AFC playoffs in both 1998 and 1999, led the NFL in total defense in 1999, and ranked third in that category in 1998 and sixth in 2000.

Before moving into the NFL, Bradley served as defensive coordinator for the Canadian Football League's Toronto Argonauts in 1996 and 1997, helping the team to Grey Cup victories both years. He also served as the defensive coordinator and secondary coach for the CFL's San Antonio Texans (1995) and the Sacramento Gold Miners (1994), worked as the defensive backs coach of the World League's San Antonio Riders (1991-92) and spent three years with the CFL's Calgary Stampeders (1988-90).

Bradley broke into the coaching ranks with the USFL's San Antonio Gunslingers in 1983 as the team's defensive backs coach and personnel assistant, then spent the 1984 campaign as secondary coach. He served as secondary coach of the USFL's Memphis Showboats (1985) and spent a year coaching at the University of Texas (1987) before moving into the CFL in 1988.

Selected in the third round of the 1969 NFL Draft by the Philadelphia Eagles, Bradley went on to earn three All-Pro awards (1971-73) at free safety. In addition, he served as the Eagles' punter and kick returner. Bradley, who led the NFL in interceptions in both 1971 (11) and 1972 (nine), became the first player ever to lead the league in interceptions in consecutive seasons, a feat that has been matched just once since.

One of Morriss' teammates in Philadelphia from 1973 to 1976, Bradley still holds Eagle records for career interception return yardage (536) and club single-season marks for interceptions and return yardage (11 for 249 in 1971), while sharing the team's all-time interception record with Eric Allen (34). He played in 114 NFL games, spending the 1969-76 seasons with the Eagles and the 1977 campaign with both the Minnesota Vikings and St. Louis Cardinals.

A native of Palestine, Texas, Bradley was a high school All-America quarterback who led his team to the 1965 state title and went on to a standout college career as a quarterback and defensive back at Texas from 1966 to 1968. He served as a tri-captain of coach Darrell Royal's 1968 Longhorn team which finished the season 9-1-1, tied for the Southwest Conference championship, was ranked third in the final Associated Press poll and fifth in the season-ending United Press International poll, and beat Tennessee 36-13 in the Cotton Bowl.

Bradley recorded a UT single-game record four interceptions in the Longhorns' 35-14 win over Texas A&M as a senior, a mark that still stands as the best-ever by a SWC performer. He played in the 1969 Hula Bowl, the Coaches All-America Game and the College All-Star Game. Bradley earned UT's 1968 D.H. Byrd Leadership Award.

A member of the Texas High School, University of Texas and Philadelphia Eagles halls of fame, Bradley and his wife, Susan, have two children, Matthew and Carissa.

LEE
HAYS
First Season at Baylor

OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR

The architect of West Texas A&M's high-octane spread offenses the past three seasons, Lee Hays, was introduced as Baylor's offensive coordinator on Dec. 12, 2005.

West Texas A&M enjoyed its most successful season in 55 years in 2005, largely due to the success of Hays' offense. The Buffaloes went 10-2 to record their first winning season since 1998 (the program had won a combined seven games in the previous four years) and post the school's first 10-win campaign since 1950. Along the way, WTAMU won the Lone Star Conference title with an 8-1 record, its first league championship since 1986, and advanced to the NCAA Division II Playoffs for the first time in school history where it lost in the quarterfinals.

The 2005 Buffalo offense led the NCAA Division II ranks in passing offense at 363.8 yards per game, while ranking No. 7 in scoring offense (40.3 ppg) and No. 9 in total offense (477.3 ypg). WTAMU also led Division II in pass completions (361) and was second in attempts (540), marking the third straight season it placed among the nation's top three in both categories. Hays' 2005 offense set school records for completion percentage (.669) and total offense yards per attempt (6.9 ypa).

At West Texas A&M, Hays also coached offensive lineman Pat McCoy, a first-team American Football Coaches Association All-American and finalist for the 2005 Gene Upshaw Award given annually to Division II's top lineman (offensive or defensive), and quarterback Dalton Bell, a Harlon Hill finalist who ranked third nationally among Division II leaders in total offense (349.2 ypg) and 13th in pass efficiency (154.9 rating). Bell set school and conference single-season records for both total offense (3,843 yards) and passing yards (3,799) while throwing a school-record 31 touchdown passes which was one off the Lone Star Conference record.

After ending his playing career at Texas A&M-Kingsville, he joined former Baylor offensive coordinator Ron Harms' Javelinas' staff as tight ends and tackles coach in 1997. Hays went to WTAMU as offensive line coach in 1999, then returned to Kingsville as defensive line coach and recruiting coordinator in 2000 before moving back to the offensive side of the ball as the program's o-line coach from 2001-03. He rejoined the West Texas A&M staff in 2003 as offensive coordinator and line coach.

During his nine-year coaching career, Hays has coached five All-Americans, 25 first-team all-conference players, three conference offensive linemen of the year award winners, one Dave Rimington Award winner and two NFL Draft picks. His coaching tenure has also helped produce five conference championship teams and six NCAA playoff entrants.

Before launching his coaching career, Hays served in the United States Marine Corps from 1987 through 1996 where he rose to the rank of Staff Sergeant and completed Marine Corps Sniper School. He served America as both a Staff Noncommissioned Officer and as a Recon Marine during his military career.

Hays played defensive end/linebacker at Cisco (Texas) Junior College for two years, then spent one season at Abilene Christian. He received his bachelor of science degree from Texas A&M-Kingsville in 1996 and his master's degree from WTAUM in 2004.

A native of Del Rio, Texas, Hays and his wife, Roxann, a fourth-generation Baylor graduate, have a 3-year-old daughter, Shanlee, and an infant son, Cade.

CHRIS LANCASTER

Fourth Season at Baylor

SPECIAL TEAMS COORDINATOR | RUNNING BACKS

Chris Lancaster enters the fourth year of his third tour of duty at Baylor, and his first as the Bears' special teams coordinator and running backs coach.

Lancaster spent the previous three seasons as Baylor's offensive line coach and is one of four current BU assistant coaches who have worked for Guy Morriss since he first became a Division I-A head coach at Kentucky in 2001. The Bears' 2003 offensive line, which relied on seven underclassmen among its 10-man rotation, helped pave the way for the school's first 1,000-yard rusher since 1995 in Rashad Armstrong. Baylor's 2003 ground attack ranked as the school's most productive since 1998. Lancaster's 2004 o-line protected well enough for BU quarterbacks to set school single-season records for completion percentage and total completions, while his 2005 unit helped Baylor post its highest scoring average since 1996.

He coached offensive tackles, tight ends and special teams at Baylor from 1993-96 for coach Chuck Reedy, a stint which included a trip to the 1994 Alamo Bowl and a share of the 1994 Southwest Conference title. One of Lancaster's former pupils, offensive tackle Fred Miller, was a two-year All-SWC performer who currently is the starting right tackle for the National Football League's Chicago Bears. He also was a graduate assistant coach at Baylor (1990-91) under legendary coach Grant Teaff, working with tight ends and linebackers, and helped the 1991 Bears to a Copper Bowl bid.

A native of Fort Rucker, Ala., Lancaster grew up in Atlanta, Ga. He was Clemson's starting fullback for three seasons (1985-87) before suffering a career-ending injury. Lancaster finished his career at Clemson as a student assistant coach in 1988-89 and worked with the running backs while earning his management degree in 1989. During his five seasons at Clemson, the Tigers won three ACC championships (1986-88) and played in five bowl games — the Independence, Gator (twice) and Citrus (twice).

After serving as a graduate assistant at Baylor for two seasons, Lancaster returned to Clemson in 1992 as a graduate assistant and worked with the Tigers' tight ends before returning to Waco upon Reedy's hiring.

Following his second stint in Waco, Lancaster coached the offensive line for two seasons at both Sam Houston State (1997-98) and McNeese State (1999-2000). McNeese State went to the 2000 Division I-AA playoffs and led the Southland Conference in both rushing and total offense. Lancaster protégé Wes Hines earned All-America honors and signed a contract with the Minnesota Vikings.

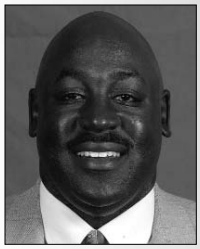
While at Sam Houston State, in addition to guiding the offensive line, Lancaster was the Bearkats' run game coordinator in 1997 and their offensive coordinator in 1998. He coached Bearkat offensive lineman Greg Studdard, who played in the NFL with both Atlanta and the New York Giants.

In 2001, Lancaster began a two-year stay at Kentucky. After coaching the defensive ends for Morriss in 2001, he returned to overseeing the offensive line the following season.

As UK's defensive ends coach, Lancaster mentored Dennis Johnson, named the "Best Defensive Player" in the Southeastern Conference by The Southeastern Post magazine. Johnson led the SEC in tackles for loss, quarterback sacks and fumbles caused, in addition to setting a single-season school record for sacks. Johnson was selected by the Arizona Cardinals in the NFL Draft and Kentucky's other starting end, Chris Demaree, signed a free-agent contract with San Diego.

In his final season with the Wildcats, Lancaster's offensive line, led by first-team All-SEC standout Antonio Hall, provided the blocking for Artose Pinner to lead the SEC in rushing.

Lancaster has two daughters, Kaila and Klemson.



WESLEY McGRIFF

Fourth Season at Baylor

RECRUITING COORDINATOR | CORNERBACKS

The highly energetic and charismatic Wesley McGriff is in his fourth season as Baylor's cornerbacks coach and his sixth working for Bears' coach Guy Morriss. The 2006 campaign also marks his third as Morriss' recruiting coordinator.

The play of McGriff's cornerbacks has played a big role in Baylor's improved pass defense the past two years. The Bears ranked 101st nationally in pass defense at the end of the 2003 season but climbed to No. 62 in 2004 and No. 57 in 2005. After finishing 115th nationally in pass efficiency defense at the end of the 2004 campaign, Baylor jumped to 13th in 2005. The 2005 Baylor defense allowed just 14 touchdowns through the air, its fewest since 1998, and recorded its most interceptions (16) since 1994 with McGriff's corners accouting for 11 picks.

A defensive coach for most of his career, having served as a defensive coordinator at two schools, McGriff spent the 2001 season as Morriss' running backs coach at Kentucky. With his runners leading the way, the Wildcats averaged 4.1 yards per carry, the teams' best mark since the 1995 season. The UK running backs did not lose any fumbles to the opponents in 2001.

In 2002, he returned to the defensive side of the ball as UK's cornerbacks coach.

McGriff spent the 2000 campaign just a few miles from Lexington as the secondary and punt return team coach at Eastern Kentucky. The 2000 Colonels ranked fourth nationally in total defense, fifth in scoring defense and ninth in passing yardage allowed. EKU posted four shutouts during the season. McGriff's standout sophomore safety, Yeremiah Bell, was a first-team All-Ohio Valley Conference pick who went on to be drafted by the NFL's Miami Dolphins.

From 1995 through 1999, he coached at Kentucky State in Frankfort, where he was assistant head coach, defensive coordinator and secondary coach. McGriff's defenses achieved numerous national top 10 statistical rankings, leading the nation in total defense in 1995 and pass yardage defense in 1997. In 1998, he was named the American Football Coaches Association's NCAA Division II National Assistant Coach of the Year.

Four of McGriff's players have played in the National Football League including Cletius Hunt (Green Bay), Devin Wyann (New England), Michael Mason (San Francisco) and Bell. In addition, Cary Scott was drafted by the Minnesota Vikings in 2001. While at KSU, he also served as a professor in the Health, Physical Education and Recreation Department.

McGriff began his coaching career as a graduate assistant coach at his alma mater, Savannah [Ga.] State. He coached the Tigers' running backs in 1990, then moved into a full-time role as secondary coach in 1991-92 and added duties as defensive coordinator in 1993-94. During the 1994 season, McGriff's unit ranked sixth nationally in total defense. He also was head coach of the school's baseball team for four seasons (1992-95), winning a pair of conference championships and twice being named league Coach of the Year.

A native of Tifton, Ga., McGriff played cornerback, running back and wide receiver for the Tift County High School state championship team. He began his collegiate playing career at South Carolina State for one year, then transferred to Savannah State, where he started at outside linebacker for three seasons.

McGriff, who was a team captain, was chosen the team's defensive MVP and was named SSC's 1989 Male Academic Athlete of the Year. In addition to his bachelor's degree in criminal justice from Savannah State in 1990, he holds a master's degree in public administration from Georgia Southern University (1993). McGriff graduated with distinction from GSU.

He was commissioned as a second lieutenant in the U.S. Army in 1990 and was a member of the Army Reserves until 2001. McGriff and his wife, Karen, have a son, Jaylen.

LARRY
HOEFER
Fourth Season at Baylor

ASSISTANT COACH | SAFETIES

Texas native and longtime defensive coach Larry Hoefer enters his fourth season as Baylor's safeties coach and his 32nd year on the sideline.

In his first year at Baylor, Hoefer coached the Bears' leading tackler in Maurice Lane, who tallied 129 stops from his free safety spot en route to honorable mention All-Big 12 honors, and Las Vegas Classic invitee Derrick Cash, the team's fourth-leading tackler as an outside safety. Another of his pupils, outside safety Willie Andrews, led the team in interceptions and was third on the squad in tackles.

The 2004 campaign saw Andrews earn first-team All-Big 12 honors as a safety from The Dallas Morning News and Lane receive first-team all-conference recognition from the San Antonio Express-News. Lane again paced the squad in tackles, while Andrews again ranked third in tackles and recorded a team-high three sacks.

Lane led the Bears in tackles for the third consecutive year in 2005 en route to first-team All-Big 12 honors from both The Associated Press and The Dallas Morning News. Andrews earned first-team All-Big 12 recognition from the league's coaches as a safety to become the first two-time first-team coaches All-Big 12 performer in school history and was later selected in the seventh round of the 2006 NFL Draft by the New England Patriots.

Hoefer spent two seasons as safeties coach on Guy Morriss' Kentucky staff before making the move to Waco. He went to UK from Texas-El Paso, where he was defensive coordinator and linebackers coach for the 2000 season. The Miners posted an 8-3 regular season record, were co-champions of the Western Athletic Conference and played in the Humanitarian Bowl. The bowl game marked Hoefer's sixth as a coach, in addition to four at Texas Tech and one (1988) during his previous stint at UTEP.

Using an eight-man front under Hoefer's guidance, UTEP reduced its rushing yardage allowed from 208.2 yards per game in 1999 to 153.8 ypg during the 2000 season. UTEP held five of its league opponents under 100 yards rushing. The Miners also ranked 19th nationally in pass efficiency defense.

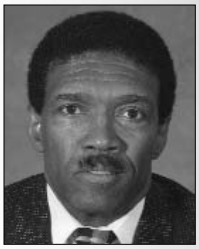
Hoefer worked for coach Spike Dykes at Texas Tech from 1994-99, where he coached the Red Raiders' outside linebackers and worked with former Baylor defensive coordinator John Goodner. Tech was bowl-eligible every season and played in the Cotton, Copper, Alamo and Independence bowls during Hoefer's tenure. Among his pupils were Marcus Coleman, a first-team All-American in 1995 who currently plays for the Dallas Cowboys, and Ty Ardoin, who went on to play for the New York Giants. Hoefer also coached All-Big 12 picks Robert Johnson and Jody Brown. The Red Raiders ranked first in the nation for takeaways over a five-year period from 1993-97.

Hoefer had multiple responsibilities as an assistant at Missouri from 1989-93, working his way up from receivers coach to defensive coordinator and assistant head coach. His first term at UTEP, from 1982-88, was capped by a 10-win season and a berth in the 1988 Independence Bowl.

A native of Abilene, Texas, Hoefer stayed in his hometown and played defensive back at McMurry University, graduating in 1973. He was team captain and earned the squad's MVP honor.

Hoefer's first coaching stop was at Tarleton State from 1974-75 as a graduate assistant working with the defensive backs. He went on to coach at Big Spring (Texas) High School in 1976 and Abilene (Texas) High from 1977-80. Hoefer coached at West Texas State in 1981 before joining the UTEP staff for the first time.

Hoefer and his wife, Kathy, have three children — married daughter Alison Schupp, and sons Tyler and Bennett — and three granddaughters, Sydney, Samantha and Sophia Schupp. Bennett is a junior defensive back on the Baylor football team, while Tyler graduated from the U.S. Naval Academy and is a second lieutenant in the Marine Corps.



HAROLD
JACKSON
Fourth Season at Baylor

ASSISTANT COACH | WIDE RECEIVERS

Harold Jackson, a five-time All-Pro wide receiver and 10-year National Football League coaching veteran, is in his fourth season at Baylor and his sixth as Guy Morriss' wide receivers coach.

Jackson has coached two of Baylor's six all-time wide out trios to each record at least 30 receptions in a season — Dominique Zeigler (55), Trent Shelton (37) and Marques Roberts (35) in 2004 and Zeigler (48), Shaun Rochon (44) and Shelton (39) in 2005.

In his first year on the BU sideline, Jackson coached All-Big 12 performer Robert Quiroga, who snagged a team-high 42 receptions for 490 yards and four touchdowns, and averaged 31.4 yards on 14 kickoff returns. Dominique Zeigler led the 2004 Bears in receptions (55) en route to honorable mention coaches All-Big 12 recognition and paced the 2005 squad with 48 receptions to garner second-team coaches All-Big 12 honors.

Jackson came to Baylor after spending two seasons as Morriss' receivers coach at Kentucky. In his first year at UK, wideout Derek Abney became a first-team All-Southeastern Conference performer, a feat he repeated in 2002 when he also earned first-team All-America honors. Jackson also oversaw the development of Aaron Boone and Tommy Cook, who blossomed as reliable contributors during the 2001 campaign.

He coached receivers for 10 years in the NFL with New England (1985-89), Tampa Bay (1992-93) and New Orleans (1997-99). In his first NFL season as a coach, the Patriots won the AFC championship and played in the 1986 Super Bowl. It was at New England where Jackson became acquainted with Morriss, who played for the Patriots from 1984-87 and was an assistant coach with the organization in 1988-89.

From New England, Jackson served as an assistant coach at North Carolina Central University in Durham, N.C., during the 1990 season. In 1991, he was the offensive coordinator for the New Orleans Night of the Arena Football League before returning to the NFL at Tampa Bay.

Following his two-year coaching stint with Tampa Bay, Jackson spent the 1994 season as the head coach at Virginia Union College in Richmond, Va. He then served as head coach for two seasons (1995-96) at Benedict College in Columbia, S.C., where he helped revive a football program that had been dormant for 29 years, before joining the Saints' staff.

Jackson enjoyed a sterling 16-year NFL playing career with the Los Angeles Rams (1968, 1973-77), Philadelphia Eagles (1969-72), New England Patriots (1978-81), Minnesota Vikings (1982) and Seattle Seahawks (1983). While with the Eagles, one of his teammates was Baylor defensive coordinator Bill Bradley. All-told, Jackson played on eight playoff teams as a pro.

His career totals include 579 receptions for 10,372 yards and 76 touchdowns. Jackson had 29 career 100-yard games and three 1,000-yard seasons. He ranks 16th in league history in receiving yardage. Jackson led the NFL in receptions in 1972 and in receiving yardage in both 1969 and 1972.

A native of Hattiesburg, Miss., Jackson played his collegiate football at Jackson State University and is a member of both the Mississippi and JSU Sports Hall of Fames. A 1968 JSU graduate, his hometown of Hattiesburg held Harold Jackson Day and presented him with a key to the city. Over the years, he has been active as a speaker for the Fellowship of Christian Athletes and the Hattiesburg Department of Recreation.

GARY
KINNE
First Season at Baylor

ASSISTANT COACH | LINEBACKERS

Gary Kinne, a standout middle linebacker at Baylor from 1986 through 1989 who went on to become a highly successful high school football coach in the Lone Star state, joined the Bears' staff as linebackers coach in January 2006. He returned to his alma mater from Canton (Texas) High School, where he had served as head football coach and athletic director since 2003.

Selected as the 2005 Adams USA National Head Coach of the Year, Kinne guided Canton to a 12-2 record and the regional finals of the 2005 Class 3A playoffs. In addition to the national award, bestowed upon the nation's top prep football coach that has not only won on the field but who also serves as a positive influence to America's youth, Kinne was also named both the 2005 Fox Sports Southwest Class 3A Coach of the Year and the District 15-3A Coach of the Year after recovering from an April 2005 gunshot wound to guide the Eagles to a school-record 12 victories and their first district title in some 41 years. His Canton coaching staff was also honored as the 2005 15-3A Staff of the Year and his team received the 2005 Gordon Wood Award from the Texas High School Football of Fame.

Canton finished 8-4 and advanced to the second round of the 2003 state playoffs in Kinne's rookie season as head coach, then posted an 8-2 record in 2004 but just missed the playoffs after losing a berth on a district tie-breaker. All told, he fashioned a 28-8 (.778) three-year record on the Eagles' sideline and led his squad to a pair of playoff appearances.

Before being introduced as Canton's head coach and athletic director, Kinne spent six seasons as an assistant coach at Mesquite (Texas) High School, where he served as defensive coordinator in his final year. He spent one season as an assistant coach at Allen High School and three years at Kaufmann High School, the last two as defensive coordinator.

A four-year letterman for coach Grant Teaff's Bears (1986-89), Kinne earned 1988 All-Southwest Conference honors as a middle linebacker after leading the Baylor defense in tackles, tackles for loss, interceptions and fumble recoveries. He ranks as the eighth-leading tackler in school history with 323 stops and his 144 career assisted tackles stand sixth on the Baylor all-time chart. The Bears posted three winning seasons during Kinne's playing career and won the Bluebonnet Bowl in 1986 to finish 12th in the final Associated Press poll.

Kinne, who captained the Bears for two seasons, received his undergraduate degree from Baylor in Dec., 1990. He signed free agent contracts with both the NFL's Philadelphia Eagles and the World Football League's Orlando Thunder after his Baylor playing career before beginning his coaching career at Kaufman.

He and his wife, Laurie, have three children--G.J. (17), Kellie (9) and Landry (5).

WES
PHILLIPS
First Season at Baylor

ASSISTANT COACH | QUARTERBACKS

Former Texas-El Paso quarterback and Houston native Wes Phillips enters his first year as Baylor's quarterbacks coach, but he is no stranger to offensive coordinator Lee Hays or the Bears' new spread offense.

Phillips has spent the past two seasons in a similar position under Hays at West Texas A&M. The Buffaloes enjoyed their most successful season in some 55 years in 2005, going 10-2 to post their first winning season since 1998 and the program's first 10-win campaign since 1950. Along the way, WTAMU won the Lone Star Conference with an 8-1 record, its first league title since 1986, and advanced to the quarterfinals of the NCAA Division II Playoffs for the first time in school history.

West Texas A&M led the 2005 Division II ranks in passing offense, throwing for an average of 363.8 yards per contest, and Phillips' pupil Dalton Bell was a national finalist for the Harlon Hill Trophy. Bell completed 68.5 percent of his passes for 3,799 yards and 30 touchdowns with just 13 interceptions in 454 attempts. He ranked No. 3 nationally in total offense yards (349.2 ypg) and 13th in pass efficiency with a 154.9 rating while establishing school and conference single-season records for both total offense (3,843) and passing (3,799) yards. Bell posted seven 300-yard passing games, including four of 400 or more yards.

Prior to joining the WTAMU staff, Phillips spent one season as a student assistant coach at his alma mater, UTEP, and played two years with the San Diego Riptide in the Arena Football League 2.

A three-year letterwinner for the Miners (1999, 2000 and 2001), Phillips was a member of the 2000 UTEP team which shared the WAC title, posted the program's highest win total in more than a decade and played in the Humanitarian Bowl. He still ranks among the school's single-season leaders in both pass efficiency (No. 9 with a 120.03 rating in 2001) and completion percentage (No. 8 at 55.6 percent in 2001).

The son of former NFL head coach and current San Diego Chargers defensive coordinator Wade Phillips and the grandson of former Houston Oilers and New Orleans Saints coaching legend Bum Phillips, Wes received his bachelor's degree in philosophy from UTEP in 2001.

DON WNEK

Second Season at Baylor

ASSISTANT COACH | DEFENSIVE LINE

Don Wnek, a specialist in pass rush and defensive line techniques with more than 25 seasons of collegiate and professional coaching experience on his resume, is in his second year as Baylor's defensive line coach.

Wnek joined the Baylor staff on the eve of the 2005 campaign and watched his starting defensive ends, Marcus Foreman and Montez Murphy, each earn 2005 honorable mention All-Big 12 honors. Murphy went on to play in the Hula Bowl and sign a free agent contract with the NFL's Green Bay Packers.

Before joining the Baylor staff, Wnek spent the 2004 football season as the director of football of operations at Indiana and worked as a federal law officer for the Department of Homeland Security in 2003.

He was the defensive line coach for the Canadian Football League's (CFL) Hamilton Tiger-Cats in 2002, his second tour of duty with the organization. Wnek served as defensive coordinator and defensive line coach with the XFL's Birmingham Thunderbolts in 2001.

His collegiate coaching experience includes stops at Northern Illinois and Nevada. Wnek coached at NIU, his alma mater, from 1978-81, and at Nevada from 1982-89. During his tenure at NIU, he coached the outside linebackers and defensive line while with the Wolfpack he coached the defensive line and served as defensive coordinator from 1986-87. Nevada won the Big Sky title in 1986 with Wnek leading the defense and was a member of two other Big Sky championship teams during his Reno tenure.

Wnek was out of football in 1990, but returned to the coaching ranks in 1991, when he coached the San Antonio Riders of the World League (now NFL Europe) during the fall and the CFL's Tiger-Cats during the spring. In San Antonio, he worked alongside Baylor's defensive coordinator Bill Bradley. Wnek served on both teams coaching staffs in 1991 and 1992 before working strictly with Hamilton in 1993 and 1994. In 1995, he coached the defensive line and linebackers for the CFL's Memphis Mad Dogs, and watched as one of his pupils led the CFL in sacks.

He worked on the Montreal Alouettes' staff in 1996 and 1997, coaching the defensive line in 1996, when one of his players again paced the CFL in sacks, and the offensive line in 1997 before a one-year stint as defensive coordinator for the British Columbia Lions in 1998. The B.C. defense ranked first in the CFL in turnovers, interceptions and fewest rushing touchdowns allowed and featured five All-Western Division All-Stars under his guidance.

Wnek returned to the Alouettes in 1999 to coach the defensive line and stayed through 2001 before returning to the Tiger-Cats in 2002. Montreal won the Eastern Division title in 2000 and played in the Grey Cup. His 2000 line spearheaded a defense that led the CFL in nine categories including most sacks and fewest points allowed. From 1995 through 2000, the defenses in which he worked with topped the CFL in sacks every season.

A three-year letterwinner at defensive end at Northern Illinois (1970-72), Wnek led the Huskies with 11 tackles for loss totaling 70 yards during his senior season. He received his bachelor's degree in education from NIU in 1974.

Wnek's son, Eli, was a fullback and linebacker at Arizona from 1997-2001 and enjoyed a brief playing career with the Arena Football League's Arizona Rattlers. He is married to the former Penny Smith of Mississauga, Ontario.

JOHN JENNINGS

First Season at Baylor

GRADUATE ASSISTANT | DEFENSE

After spending the past five years (2001-2005) at Texas Tech, including the last three as the defensive graduate assistant, John Jennings is in his first season as Baylor's defensive graduate assistant.

At Tech, Jennings assisted with the implementation of Red Raider defensive coordinator Lyle Setencich's schemes and worked with the linebackers. Before becoming a Tech graduate assistant, Jennings spent two years as a Red Raider student assistant.

The Liberty, Texas, native lettered in football, track and power lifting at Liberty High School. He played tight end at McNeese State for three seasons and earned his bachelor's degree in dietetics from Texas Tech in 2002. Jennings then earned a master of science degree from Texas Tech. He resides in Waco with his wife, Erica.

BOBBY KING

First Season at Baylor

GRADUATE ASSISTANT | VIDEO OPERATIONS

At West Texas A&M, King helped the Buffaloes to their most successful season in some 55 years at 10-2, a Lone Star Conference title and their first-ever NCAA Division II Playoff quarterfinal appearance.

A native of Louisville, Ky., King went to WTAMU from St. Martha [Ky.] School, where he taught and coached the defensive line. He was a student assistant at Texas-El Paso for two seasons (2002-03), where he worked with the defensive line.

A teammate of current BU quarterbacks coach Wes Phillips at UTEP, King was a three-year letterwinner (1998, 1999 & 2000) and two-year starter along the defensive line. The Miners' defensive coordinator in his senior year was current Baylor safeties coach Larry Hoefer. King received his bachelor's degree in criminal justice from UTEP in 2004.

DAVID NICHOL

First Season at Baylor

GRADUATE ASSISTANT | OFFENSE

David Nichol, who has spent the last three seasons (2003-05) as Texas Tech's offensive graduate assistant, enters his first year in a similar position at Baylor. He will oversee the Bears' inside receivers after working with the Red Raiders' offensive line.

A former Red Raider receiver (1996-99), Nichol spent 2002 as the passing game coordinator at Cisco (Texas) Junior College. He coached the quarterbacks and receivers in an offense that finished first in the conference in passing and second in total offense. Cisco also set a single-game conference record for completions and boasted the league's top rusher.

Following his Texas Tech playing career, he was a Red Raider student assistant working with the quarterbacks and receivers before moving to Cisco.

The Dallas native received his bachelor's degree from Texas Tech in exercise and sport sciences (1999) and his master's in Interdisciplinary Studies in May 2002.

JERRY PICKLE

23rd Season at Baylor

DIRECTOR OF FOOTBALL OPERATIONS

Jerry Pickle is in his 23rd season on the Baylor staff and his 12th as director of football operations. He joined the Baylor program full-time in 1986 as recruiting coordinator and administrative assistant to hall of fame coach Grant Teaff.

In his current role, Pickle handles administrative responsibilities for the Baylor football program including event scheduling, recruiting administration, admission of student-athletes, eligibility of student-athletes, housing and game-day operations. In 1995, Pickle was honored as one of Baylor's employees of the year.

He began his coaching career at the high school level. Pickle then coached five years in the college ranks in Mississippi and Missouri before coming to Baylor.

Pickle has both bachelor's (1976) and master's (1980) degrees in health, physical education and recreation from Delta State in Cleveland, Miss., where he lettered in football and track.

Pickle is married to the former Julie Turner and they have two sons, Matthew (20) and Jonathan (17).

ODELL JAMES

Third Season at Baylor

ASST. DIR. OF OPERATIONS | ASST. STRENGTH COACH

Odell James, a Houston native and four-year Baylor football letterman (1997-2000), was named to the dual position of assistant director of football operations and assistant strength coach in August 2004.

James joined the Baylor staff from Waco's O & K Sports, a company he founded in August 2002. Prior to that, he spent one academic year (2001-02) as a teacher and coach in the Waco Independent School District. James served as the seventh grade basketball coach at Waco's St. Louis Catholic Middle School during the 2000-01 season, guiding the team to a district championship, while also working as a personal fitness assistant at Baylor's McLane Student Life Center.

One of the nation's most highly-recruited quarterbacks as a senior at Houston's MacArthur High School, earning Bluechip and Super Prep All-America honors in his final year, James redshirted his freshman season at Baylor due to injury. He then appeared in 22 games over the next three seasons at quarterback, drawing four starts as a sophomore in 1998.

Following his junior season, James moved to free safety for his senior year and played in all 11 games with three starts. He received his bachelor's degree in speech communication and sociology from Baylor in August 2001.

ELAINE HOLLOWAY

JOHN WILLIAMS

Fifth Season at Baylor

DIRECTOR OF STRENGTH & CONDITIONING

John Williams Jr. joined the Baylor staff as the school's director of strength and conditioning in May 2002. Williams, who had worked with more than 15 different sports at the collegiate level during previous stops at North Carolina and Oklahoma State, oversees Baylor's overall strength and conditioning program for its 18 intercollegiate athletic programs.

A 1995 graduate of North Carolina A&T, Williams sandwiched two tenures at North Carolina (as a graduate assistant from 1997-99 and as assistant strength and conditioning coach from 2000-02) around a one-year stint as assistant strength and conditioning coach at Oklahoma State (1999-2000).

Williams has trained seven first-round NFL Draft picks and over 30 NFL players in his young career.

The native of Greenville, N.C., is married to the former Sherri Taylor of Kinston, N.C., and they have a daughter, Christina Josette.

MIKE SIMS

26th Season at Baylor

DIRECTOR OF SPORTS MEDICINE

Mike Sims, considered one of the nation's leading authorities on sports equipment safety standards, is in his 26th year of service to Baylor's student-athletes, coaches and staff.

Born and raised in Cedar Hill, Texas, Sims served as a student trainer at Cedar Hill High School, where he graduated from in 1975. He then spent five years as a Baylor student trainer and graduated with a bachelor of science degree in 1980 and his master's degree two years later.

Licensed by the State of Texas and certified by NATA, Sims became Baylor's first full-time assistant trainer in 1981. He served three years in that position before becoming BU's head trainer in October 1984. Sims was promoted into his current post as Baylor's director of sports medicine in 1993.

As a member of the board of directors of the National Operating Committee on Standards for Athletic Equipment (NOCSAE), Sims helps determine safety standards for equipment such as football and baseball helmets and catcher's masks.

Sims married the former Suzanne Stevens, also a Baylor graduate, on May 21, 1983, and the couple has two children: Jessica (16) and Keith (14). He is a deacon at First Baptist Church in Woodway.

JEFF BARLOW

Fourth Season at Baylor

EQUIPMENT MANAGER

A native of Vicksburg, Miss., Barlow received his bachelor's degree in business administration from Mississippi State in 2002. As an undergraduate, Barlow served as a student manager for the Bulldog football team from 1998-2002. In the summer of 2002, Barlow had a training camp internship with the NFL's Houston Texans.

A 1998 graduate of Vicksburg's Warren Central High School, Barlow is married to the former Laura Woodward.

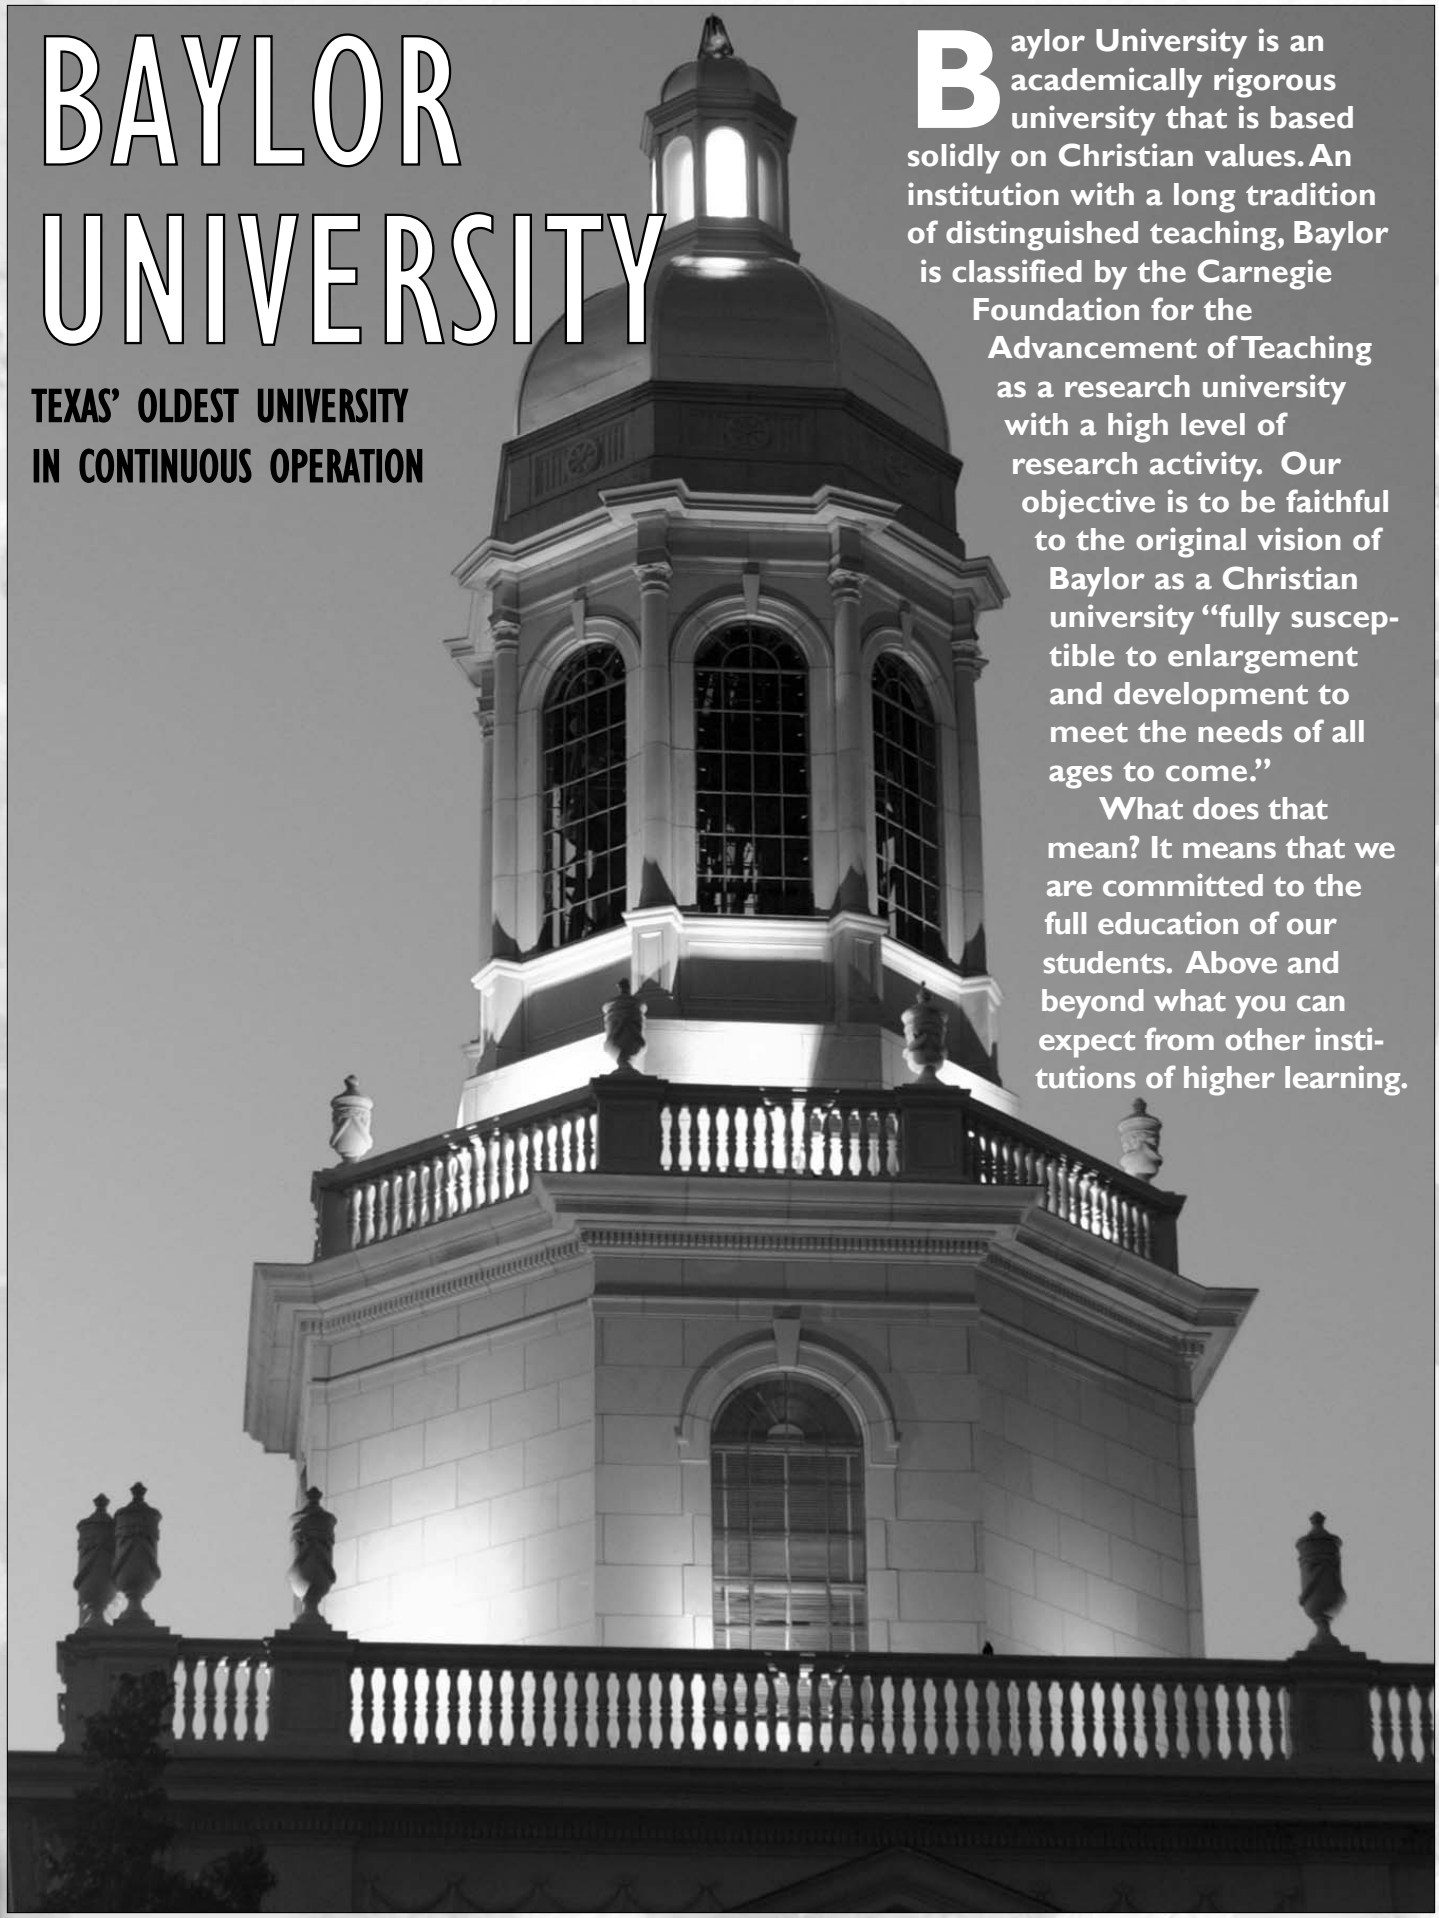
BAYLOR UNIVERSITY

TEXAS' OLDEST UNIVERSITY IN CONTINUOUS OPERATION



Baylor University is an academically rigorous university that is based solidly on Christian values. An institution with a long tradition of distinguished teaching, Baylor is classified by the Carnegie Foundation for the Advancement of Teaching as a research university with a high level of research activity. Our objective is to be faithful to the original vision of Baylor as a Christian university "fully susceptible to enlargement and development to meet the needs of all ages to come."

What does that mean? It means that we are committed to the full education of our students. Above and beyond what you can expect from other institutions of higher learning.

HOW DO WE DO THAT?

At Baylor, you will get out of your comfort zone. Whether you are talking to other Baylor students or recent alumni, you will hear that Baylor challenges you to discover and develop your best gifts, to become involved in a variety of activities and to know and work with people who are not replicas of yourself.

Baylor University's 735-acre campus welcomes high-quality students from all 50 states and some 70 countries. Our nationally recognized academic divisions offer 145 undergraduate, 74 master's and 22 doctoral, juris doctor and education specialist degree programs. Baylor consists of 11 academic units:

- o College of Arts and Sciences
- o Hankamer School of Business
- o School of Education
- o School of Engineering and Computer Science
- o Graduate School
- o Honors College
- o Law School
- o School of Music
- o Louise Herrington School of Nursing
- o George W. Truett Theological Seminary
- o School of Social Work

Baylor also offers an affiliated graduate degree program with the U.S. Army Academy of Health Sciences in San Antonio and West Point.

FAITH AND LEARNING

Baylor was chartered by the Republic of Texas in 1845 through the efforts of Baptist pioneers to provide quality education in a Christian setting. Baylor continues to hold fast to its heritage and mission. We welcome students of all denominations and encourage students to understand Christianity and the Bible, as well as to develop and practice their faith.

Because of our faith, we strive for excellence in academics and learning. Some of the best professors in the world are at Baylor. Faculty bring outstanding credentials from universities across the country: from Notre Dame to Georgetown, from Cornell to Stanford; and from across continents, as far away as Leipzig and Moscow. One thing they have in common is that they are great teachers, drawn to be part of a community of Christian scholars that cares how its academic endeavors impact larger issues in society.

In 2004, Baylor received the only "A" out of 50 colleges surveyed by the American Council of Trustees and Alumni in Washington, D.C., for its core curriculum. This survey included some of the most prestigious universities in the nation, such as Harvard, Yale, Princeton, Berkeley and Duke.

VISION

In September 2001, the Baylor University Board of Regents adopted a bold 10-year Vision called Baylor 2012. Within the course of a decade, Baylor intends to enter the top tier of American universities while reaffirming its distinctive Christian mission. Substantial progress has been made on several key initiatives. We have increased scholarship funds, lowered the student-faculty ratio, added a 600-person residential village and begun construction on a 700-person residential village on campus, and built a state-of-the-art $100 million sciences building and a new museum studies complex.

RESULTS

The average SAT score of entering freshmen has improved from 1160 in 1995 to 1196 in 2005, and the fall 2006 freshman class is on target to achieve an average SAT score of 1211. Minority enrollment as a percentage of the overall undergraduate student population has increased from 20.8 percent in 1995 to 27 percent in 2005. Baylor's fall 2005 freshman class was the most diverse in the University's history with a minority enrollment of 30.6 percent.

Here is more evidence of Baylor's top-ranked status. While we are the only private university in the Big 12 Conference, Baylor steps up to the plate with NCAA intercollegiate athletics in 18 sports for men and women. In 2005-06, a school-record 13 teams advanced to postseason competition while eight teams finished the year ranked in the Top 20 nationally. Men's and women's tennis both captured Big 12 regular season championships with the women adding a tournament title. Freshman Jacob Norman won the NCAA championship in the 60 meters. Baylor recorded its second-highest finish ever in the NACDA Directors' Cup standings and recorded back-to-back top 35 finishes for the first time in school history.

Baylor is 78th out of 248 top national doctoral-granting universities included in the U.S. News & World Report's 2006 Best Colleges survey. Baylor also is listed in 2006 editions of The Princeton Review's Best 361 Colleges and The Fiske Guide to Colleges.

With the Carnegie Foundation for the Advancement of Teaching revising its widely-used classification system, Baylor University has progressed to "research university" status with "high research activity."

The Carnegie Foundation developed three new categories of doctorate-granting institutions: research universities with "very high" research activity, research universities with "high" research activities, and doctoral/research universities. The new classification moves Baylor into a category with such universities as Auburn, Boston College, Brigham Young, Clemson, Georgetown, Temple, Texas Tech, Nevada, Oklahoma and Wake Forest. Substantial research institutions, such as Cal Berkeley, Harvard, the University of Texas at Austin and Texas A&M, are included in the "very high" research category.

The Institute of International Education (based on 2002-03 year) lists Baylor as one of the top doctoral institutions for the number of students participating in international studies. And, an Intel Corp. survey placed the University at No. 32 among 100 universities named as a "most unwired" campus.

The best way to learn about Baylor and all that it has to offer is through a personal visit. Call 254.710.2407 to schedule a campus tour.

WACO

THE HEART OF TEXAS

With a population of 215,000, the Waco metropolitan area is located in the heart of Central Texas and within driving distance of most major urban centers in the state — approximately 100 miles from Dallas/Fort Worth and Austin and 180 miles from Houston and San Antonio. Airline service to Dallas/Fort Worth and Houston is available through the expanded and renovated Waco Regional Airport.

The climate of Central Texas is mild year-round. High temperatures range from the upper 90s at the peak of the summer to the 30s and 40s in the winter. Housing is affordable, and part-time jobs are easy to find.

Outdoor recreational opportunities in the Waco area include 7,000-acre Lake Waco and the 416-acre Cameron Park, one of the state's largest municipal parks which offers hiking and mountain biking trails, a championship disc golf course and the natural habitat Cameron Park Zoo. There are a total of 35 parks in the city.

Annual events include Baylor Homecoming, the Heart O' Texas Fair and Rodeo and outdoor concerts held along the banks of the Brazos River.

A city of museums and galleries, Waco's local offerings include the Texas Ranger Hall of Fame and Museum, the Texas Sports Hall of Fame, the Art Center, the Dr Pepper Museum and a number of sites on the Baylor University campus, including two art galleries, Armstrong Browning Library, the Mayborn Museum Complex and the Governor Bill and Vara Daniel Historic Village.

Waco is home to a variety of fine restaurants, many located in the city's revitalized warehouse district downtown. The area features an eclectic mix of restaurants, specialty shops and loft and office space.

WACO HISTORY

Waco is named after the Waco Indians, the first inhabitants of the area surrounding a natural spring on the Brazos River. The tribe lived in beehive-shaped huts and had hundreds of acres of land planted with corn, beans and other vegetables. The tribe was generally considered a peaceful one, but occasionally, when threatened, the Wacos became protective of their territory. Part of their village was located on the banks of the Brazos where the Suspension Bridge was later built.

In 1837, the Texas Rangers arrived intending to build a fort — Fort Fisher — at the Waco village, but the expedition was short-lived and plans for the outpost were canceled. A trading post was established near Waco Village in 1844, and a year later a rugged Scot named Neil McLennan established the first frontier settlement in the area. In 1848, three years after Texas became a state, the Mexican land grant surrounding the old Waco Village site was sold to a group of businessmen from Galveston. In 1849, surveyor George Erath laid out the first streets of Waco, and lots were sold for $5 each. The City of Waco was incorporated on Aug. 29, 1856, and serves as the county seat of McLennan County.

In 1870, the 475-foot Suspension Bridge opened as the first pedestrian/wagon bridge across the Brazos River, providing easier access for numerous travelers as well as cattle herds being driven along the Chisholm Trail. The Waco and Northwestern Railroad reached Waco in 1871, and the city was soon a hub of commerce for Central Texas.

WACO, OFTEN CALLED THE "HEART OF TEXAS," IS THE COUNTY SEAT OF MCLENNAN COUNTY AND IS LOCATED IN THE CENTRAL GEOGRAPHIC REGION OF THE STATE OF TEXAS. THE METRO POPULATION OF WACO IS 213,000 AND 3.2 MILLION PEOPLE LIVE WITHIN A 100-MILE RADIUS.

THREE PROFESSIONAL SPORTS CITIES AND EIGHT MAJOR PROFESSIONAL SPORTS TEAMS ARE WITHIN THREE HOURS OF WACO: DALLAS, HOUSTON AND SAN ANTONIO

DR PEPPER MUSEUM

The Dr Pepper Museum and Free Enterprise Institute is located in downtown Waco. The museum stands three blocks from the original site of Morrison's Old Corner Drug Store, where Dr. Charles Alderton first created Dr Pepper in 1885.

WESTERN WHITE HOUSE

McLennan County, of which Waco is the county seat, includes the city of Crawford, Texas, the home of President George W. Bush's ranch.

WOOLY MAMMOTHS

In 1978, 28,000-year-old bones from more than 20 wooly mammoths were discovered emerging from the mud at the confluence of the Brazos River and the Bosque River in Waco. The site is one of the world's largest — and most intriguing — findings of its kind.

GOVERNORS

EARLY SKYSCRAPER

OCT. 8, 2005 — AMES, IOWA FOOTBALL ⇨
Baylor out-scored Iowa State 13-0 in the second half to post a 23-13 win over the Cyclones. It was Baylor's first Big 12 road victory in the league's 10-year existence.

OCT. 19, 2005 — COLLEGE STATION, TEXAS VOLLEYBALL
Baylor defeated Texas A&M in four games at G. Rollie White Coliseum, marking the Bears' first victory at College Station since 1992.

NOV. 19, 2005 — FLOYD CASEY STADIUM FOOTBALL
A 38-point first half propelled Baylor to a 44-34 victory over Oklahoma State as the Bears posted two wins in Big 12 play for the first time in league history.

NOV. 21, 2005 — TERRE HAUTE, IND. WOMEN'S CROSS COUNTRY
Led by freshman Erin Bedell's 40th-place individual performance, Baylor finished 15th at the NCAA Cross Country Championships, the highest finish for the women's team since 1998.

JAN. 7, 2006 — FERRELL CENTER WOMEN'S BASKETBALL ⇨
Baylor eased past Texas 61-48 in front of 10,040 fans, the fifth-largest women's basketball crowd in Ferrell Center history.

FEB. 1, 2006 — FERRELL CENTER MEN'S BASKETBALL
Curtis Jerrells' 3-pointer with 22 seconds left gave Baylor a 72-70 overtime win over Kansas State. The victory snapped a 20-game losing streak for the Bears, who were not allowed to play non-conference games due to NCAA sanctions.

FEB. 25, 2006 — FERRELL CENTER MEN'S BASKETBALL
Baylor unveiled its All-Centennial Team, celebrating 100 years of Baylor basketball. The 17-member team then watched the Bears thrash Iowa State 91-73, including a 16-point effort by All-Centennial Team member Aaron Bruce.

MARCH 11, 2006 — FAYETTEVILLE, ARK. MEN'S TRACK & FIELD
Jacob Norman equaled his season-best and school-record time of 6.56 seconds to win his first national title in the 60-meter dash at the NCAA Indoor Track & Field Championships.

MARCH 20, 2006 — TUCSON, ARIZ. WOMEN'S BASKETBALL
Baylor defeated New Mexico 87-67 in the second round of the NCAA Tournament. The Lady Bears advanced to the Sweet 16 for the third consecutive season with the victory.

APRIL 23, 2006 — BAYLOR TENNIS CENTER TENNIS ⇨
One day after Baylor's women's team claimed its second straight Big 12 title, Baylor's men's team won its league-record fifth consecutive title. The women went on to win the Big 12 Tournament, while the men were runners-up.

MAY 14, 2006 — BAYLOR BALLPARK BASEBALL
After the start of the game was delayed two hours due to substantial rains in the Waco area, Baylor rained on Nebraska's parade. The Bears posted a 12-2 victory to complete a three-game sweep of the fifth-ranked Huskers.

MAY 18, 2006 — PALO ALTO, CALIF. WOMEN'S TENNIS
Baylor defeated No. 12 Vanderbilt 5-2, advancing to the national quarterfinals for the first time in the program's history.

MAY 20, 2006 — CORVALLIS, ORE. SOFTBALL
Baylor scored two in the sixth inning and one in the seventh inning to rally past Portland State for a 3-2 victory. The win put the Lady Bears in the NCAA Corvallis Regional championship game.

MAY 22, 2006 — PALO ALTO, CALIF. MEN'S TENNIS
In a five-hour, 37-minute marathon that ended in the wee hours of the morning, Baylor defeated 13th-ranked Stanford 4-3 in the national quarterfinals. The win propelled Baylor to its third consecutive national seminfials appearance.

JUNE 3, 2006 — HOUSTON, TEXAS BASEBALL ⇨
Baylor defeated No. 16 Arizona State 3-2 to open play at the NCAA Houston Regional in one of the most dramatic games in the program's history. The Bears went on to reach the regional title game, their fifth such appearance in six years.

JUNE 15, 2006 — MAMARONECK, N.Y. MEN'S GOLF
All-American Ryan Baca teed off at the 106th U.S. Open Golf Championship, held at Winged Foot Golf Club. The 2006 Baylor graduate shot an 8-over par 78 in the opening round, third among amateurs.

FLOYD CASEY STADIUM

Beautiful Floyd Casey Stadium is in its 56th season as home to the Baylor football team. The stadium is continually upgraded to give Baylor a facility necessary to be competitive in the Big 12 Conference.

New in 2006 is a tribute to Baylor football around the stadium designed to enhance the Grant Teaff Plaza, which includes the Letterwinners Plaza and the "I Believe" Walkway. A new recruiting center, located on the northwest patio, also opened prior to the 2006 season.

The plaza, first opened in 2002, originally was located at the base of the press box on the west side of the stadium. The plaza has since been expanded to wrap completely around the stadium. The plaza's centerpiece is a statue honoring former Baylor head coach and College Football Hall of Fame member Grant Teaff, the program's winningest coach who led Baylor to two Southwest Conference titles.

In 2004, Baylor unveiled a new synthetic turf playing surface after six seasons of play on SportGrass. The natural surface was replaced with the Prestige System playing surface.

In 2002, Baylor added a 23-by-31-foot LED video screen going in the south end zone. The project included the addition of a state-of-the-art sound system and new digital scoreboards in both end zones.

Baylor's locker room got a face lift in 2001, when the $2 million facility, the Big 12's largest, was completed.

Baylor added a state-of-the-art luxury suite and pressbox structure on the stadium's west side in 1999. One year prior, the team meeting room area also underwent a complete remodeling.

In 1990, new lights, expanded and improved restrooms, and new concession stands were completed.

The Carl and Thelma Casey Athletic Center houses departmental offices, locker rooms, training rooms, weight facilities, a video studio and meeting facilities. The state-of-the-art facility was opened in 1991.

After 39 years of being called Baylor Stadium, 1989 was the stadium's first full year under the name Floyd Casey Stadium.

The name change officially took place during halftime ceremonies of the 1988 Homecoming game with Arkansas when it was announced that longtime University supporter and trustee the late Carl B. Casey of Dallas and his wife, Thelma, contributed $5 million to the stadium renovation project in honor of his father Floyd Casey. The generous Casey donation was part of an $8 million campaign.

After World War II the Baylor Stadium Corporation was formed and began a campaign to build a stadium for the University. The corporation launched a bond sales program and was able to raise $1.5 million for construction costs. The Bears moved to Baylor Stadium in 1950.

The first game played in the 50,000-seat stadium was Sept. 30, 1950, a 34-7 Baylor victory over the Houston Cougars, then, an independent team. The initial Southwest Conference game was Nov. 4, 1950, a 27-20 win over Texas A&M. The largest crowd to see at home was the 1995 A&M game

During the 1970s, the beautiful and comfortable Letterman's Lounge was built on the stadium's west side with funds provided by former athletes. That facility received a facelift in 1995.

An eight-year project to change from worn wooden to modern aluminum bleacher was finished in 1981.

Prior to the building of Baylor Stadium in 1950, several playing sites were employed by the Bears. The first Bear football squad was formed in 1899, but no records are available to prove where the team played. Old newspaper clippings and yearbook articles only indicate the first three seasons were played on an extremely rough field close to the school.

From 1902 to 1925, with the exception of 1906 when football was banned on campus because it was deemed too violent, the Bears played most of their games at Carroll Field, an on-campus facility.

The Bears played at the Cotton Palace from 1926-29 before returning to Carroll Field from 1930-35.

The team moved off the main campus for good in 1936 when it began calling the newly built Waco Stadium home.

Waco Stadium was renamed Municipal Stadium in 1942, and it was where BU played through 1949 except for a break from 1943-44 because of the war effort.

BAYLOR

TRADITION

THE BEAR NICKNAME AND MASCOT

Baylor began intercollegiate athletic competition in the 1890s, but the University was without an official mascot until 1914. That's the year President Samuel Palmer Brooks held a vote of the student body to determine how the University's teams would be known nationwide. Former student George Baines Rosborough offered a $5 gold piece to the student who submitted the winning entry.

Despite competition from two dozen rivals including the buffalo, antelope, frog and ferret, Baylor students chose the bear as the University's mascot, and Doyle Thrailkill of San Antonio won the $5 prize. Baylor's student newspaper the Lariat soon carried the headline "Bruin is Elected Patron Saint of All Baylordom."

Although Baylor adopted "Bears" as its official nickname in 1914, it was not until the 1920s that a real bear mascot came to the University.

The first live bear was made available by the troops of the 107th Engineers, a unit of the 32nd Infantry Division stationed at Camp MacArthur in Waco during World War I.

The bear, named Ted, made his first appearance at the 1917 Baylor-Texas A&M football game, and when the unit got its orders to move on, the bear was left in the hands of the Baylor athletic department. Since then, the use of bears at Baylor football and basketball games has become as much a fixture as the players, cheerleaders and bands.

A series of bears have served as Baylor's mascot, but perhaps the best-known was Joe College, who came to Baylor through the work of Bill Boyd, then a Baylor student. Boyd bought the bear from a zoo that went broke at the Cotton Palace in Waco. He then approached Baylor's president, Pat Neff, and offered to take care of the bear in exchange for free tuition. Neff accepted the deal and the tradition of live bears as mascots has continued since.

In 1974, the student body voted to name all the bears "Judge" followed by a surname in honor of the university's namesake, Judge R.E.B. Baylor. Baylor's current mascots are "Joy," named in honor of the wife of President Emeritus (and former Chancellor) Herbert H. Reynolds, and the newest mascot, "Lady" named after Sue Sloan, wife of then-President (and current Chancellor) Dr. Robert B. Sloan Jr.

The bears attend several Baylor athletic events, schools, community centers, churches, and any other educational outreach.

The bears may also be seen at the Bill and Eva Williams Bear Habitat located in the center of the Baylor campus. The new home of the bears was officialy dedicated during Homecoming 2005 and is classified as a Class 'C' Exhibitor Zoo. It is licensed to hold up to three North American Black Bears and is regulated and licensed by the United States Department of Agriculture and the Texas Parks and Wildlife.

"SIC 'EM BEARS" AND THE BEAR CLAW

In 1960, Baylor's yell leaders introduced the "Bear Claw" hand signal — made by slightly curving all five fingers inward to form a claw — and the "Sic'Em Bears" yell. The initial reaction to the new traditions from students and faculty was mixed.

The issue was a topic of heated debate on campus, and the use of both the hand signal and yell was sporadic until Grant Teaff arrived as Baylor's head football coach in 1972. Teaff initiated a new era of Baylor football, and the "Bear Claw" and "Sic 'Em Bears" yell came to symbolize pride in Baylor athletics.

THE BAYLOR LINE

The Baylor Line is a freshman spirit organization. Line members wear matching jerseys to home football games and sit in a block of seats in front of the Baylor cheerleaders. Baylor Line members leave the stands prior to kickoff to run the perimeter of the field and form a line for the team to enter before kickoff.

"THAT GOOD OLD BAYLOR LINE"

The beginnings of Baylor's school song can be traced back to 1907. That's when student George Baines Rosborough penned an alternative set of lyrics to the waltz tune "In The Good Old Summertime," first made popular on Broadway in 1902. Rosborough's new lyrics were humorous, with references to sending Baylor's gridiron rivals home "done up in turpentine." For the next quarter century, the altered tune gained acceptance as Baylor's unofficial school song.

In the fall of 1931, Enid Markham, wife of music professor Robert Markham, decided that the words to the song were undignified and not representative of Baylor. So, she penned a new set of lyrics, which have since become accepted as the University's school song:

That good old Baylor Line!
That good old Baylor Line!
We'll march forever down the years,
As long as stars shall shine.
We'll fling our Green and Gold afar
To light the ways of time,
And guide us as we onward go:
That good old Baylor Line!

THE IMMORTAL TEN

Baylor has many traditions and a rich history as a university that has been in existence for over 150 years. One of the events that has had a lasting impact on the University and its athletic department is the story of the Immortal Ten.

On January 22, 1927, coach Ralph Wolf was taking his first Baylor basketball team to play a game at the University of Texas. This was a crucial game in the Bears' race for the 1927 Southwest Conference championship. The trip was not a pleasant one, as rain had poured over Central Texas for the majority of the day and continued as the team departed for Austin.

That hampered the vision of the chartered bus driver as debris from the road sprayed the windshield of the bus. At Round Rock, Texas, just miles from the team's arrival in Austin, one of America's first athletic tragedies occurred. A speeding train from the I&GA Railroad Company rammed into the side of the bus at a railway crossing near the center of the city. Ten of the 21 players, coaches and fans of the Baylor party that traveled on the bus that day were killed.

Baylor remembers the story each year at Homecoming, when freshmen hear the tragic story and participate in a candlelight remembrance ceremony. Baylor students and alumni are raising funds to have a statue honoring the Immortal Ten erected on campus.

There was a hero of the accident, James Clyde "Abe" Kelly. Kelly, who was captain-elect of the 1927 football team, saw the train just before impact and pushed his roommate, Weir Washman, out of the bus' window. Kelly is credited with saving the life of his best friend at the greatest expense to himself. Kelly was one of the 10 who died in the collision.

Wesley Bradshaw, who is still in the top 10 on the Baylor football career scoring list, was seriously hurt. Gordon Barry, Joe Potter, Edgar Gooch, C.S. Bean, Keifer Strickland (an All-SWC selection), John Kane, Dave Cheavers (former Baylor journalism department chair) and coach Wolf were slightly injured. Washman and Louis Slade were unhurt.

As a result of the tragedy, the remainder of the 1927 season was canceled, and the first highway overpass in Texas was constructed in Round Rock.

GOLDEN WAVE BAND

In 1902, 17 students pooled their talents to become the Baylor Cadet Band. The following year, membership increased to 28 as the band, directed by Charles W. Parker, went under the auspices of the ROTC department. The band remained a part of Baylor's ROTC until the end of World War I, when the group reorganized and became known as the Baylor Bear Band.

The band became known as the Golden Wave after members first wore new golden-colored uniforms at the Baylor-SMU football game in 1928. The next year, Everett McCracken was appointed director and kicked off a new era of development for the band with a 10-day, 820-mile tour of Texas.

During the next half century, the band gained national prominence and was featured in postseason contests including the Orange, Sugar, Gator, Bluebonnet and Cotton Bowls. The current Golden Wave Marching Band, directed by Barry Kraus, marches approximately 260 members.

THE MEDAL OF HONOR

Baylor University is believed to be the only school in America to have two former athletes win the Congressional Medal of Honor, the nation's highest military honor for bravery. Both men — Jack Lummus and John "Killer" Kane — won the award for their service in World War II.

Lummus played football, basketball and baseball for Baylor from 1938 through 1941. He was an All-Southwest Conference center fielder before signing with the New York Giants of the National Football League.

After one year of professional football, Lummus joined the Marines and was a platoon leader in the initial days of fighting on Iwo Jima. While leading a charge on enemy positions, he stepped on a land mine and lost both legs. Despite the heavy bleeding that resulted, he led his platoon to knock out several pockets of Japanese fire, which played a vital role in the eventual U.S. victory. Lummus died of his wounds shortly after the battle.

Kane played football and basketball at Baylor and survived the 1927 bus-train accident that killed 10 Baylor students. He joined the Army Air Corps in 1932 and soon became a bomber commander of legendary proportions, leading the famous air raid on Nazi-controlled oil refineries in Ploesti, Romania in 1943.

THE HOMECOMING TRADITION

Baylor is believed to be among the first five schools nationally ever to celebrate homecoming along with Illinois, Northern Illinois, Indiana and Michigan. Baylor held its first homecoming in 1909 and responded with a 6-3 win over TCU on Thanksgiving Day, then took a six-year hiatus before celebrating its second in 1915 with 51-0 victory over TCU.

Usually celebrated over Thanksgiving weekend, early Homecomings were held sporadically until they became an annual event in 1930 when the name was changed from "Good Will Week" to Homecoming and brought under the direction of the Chamber.

One tradition which remains from 1909 is the Homecoming parade, which featured well over 130 entries, with both 60 automobiles and carriages, plus student organizations on foot in its first year. As it is today, the parade was led by law enforcement and the Baylor marching band.

CHRISTIAN ATMOSPHERE

Baylor is affiliated with the Baptist General Convention of Texas, a cooperative association of autonomous Texas Baptist churches. All members of the University's Board of Regents are Baptist.

Baylor is concerned with the spiritual, moral and intellectual development of those who come within its sphere of influence. It is committed to a caring relationship among its students, staff and faculty — a caring that is characterized by understanding, forgiveness and respect for individuality. The University is proud of its Christian heritage and strives to be an institution stimulated both by the power of God and the search for truth.

A number of organizations at Baylor help the University carry out its Christian mission, including the offices of the Dean of Chapel/University Ministries and Church Relations; the centers for Christian Ethics and Ministry Effectiveness; the institutes of Church-State Studies and Faith and Learning; Baylor You youth camps; and numerous student ministry groups representing a variety of faiths.

In addition, all Baylor students participate in two semesters of Chapel, a twice-weekly University gathering which features lectures and performances from a distinguished group of speakers and artists.

FRANK FALLON

Radio waves throughout the Baylor family fell silent the evening of April 30, 2004, upon the passing of the legendary Frank Fallon.

Best known as the former "Voice of the Baylor Bears," Fallon's face and voice were synonymous with Baylor athletics.

A native of El Paso, Texas, Fallon grew up in San Antonio, Texas, attending Alamo Heights High School. He began his broadcasting career at KITE San Antonio at the age of 18. Following graduation from Baylor in 1953, Fallon joined Waco's KWTX and had a 28-year association with the station.

He served as the play-by-play announcer for Baylor football and basketball for 42 years. Fallon spent 20 years as the public address announcer and "Voice of the NCAA Final Four," as well as doing television play-by-play for Southwest Conference Basketball on NBC and ESPN.

A broadcast journalism professor at Baylor in his latter years, Fallon received many prestigious awards during his career. In August 2001, he was presented the Chris Schenkel Award, honoring lifetime excellence and community contributions. Fallon was the recipient of the 2001 Baylor Communications Award. He was honored as Texas Association of Broadcasters Sportscaster of the Year five times and Associated Press Best Radio Play-By-Play Announcer seven times.

Fallon is a member of the Baylor Hall of Honor and the Texas High School Hall of Fame. He also was voted one of the top 10 all-time Texas radio play-by-play announcers by the Texas Sportswriters Association and in 2005 was inducted into the Texas Hall of Fame's inaugural sports media class.

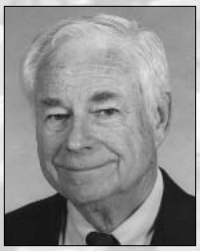
DAVE CAMPBELL

A 1950 cum laude graduate of Baylor University, Dave Campbell is truly a living legend in the world of sports journalism.

Campbell is best known for founding Texas Football in 1960. He served as editor and publisher for the annual preseason publication that quickly emerged as the nation's prototype regional sports publications. Campbell still serves as the publication's editor-in-chief.



Save a stint with the 14th Armored Division in France and Germany during World War II, Campbell spent 51 years as a member of the editorial staff at the Waco Tribune-Herald. Hired by the newspaper in 1942, Campbell became sports editor in 1953 and held that position until his retirement in 1993.

However, retirement did not last long; Campbell was hand-picked to create and edit the Baylor Bear Insider Report, a publication of the Baylor Bear Foundation devoted solely to the coverage of Baylor athletics.

The list of accolades and honors Campbell has received stretches as long as his career. Along with winning the Bronze Star for heroic achievement during World War II, Campbell has been presented the Bert McGrane Award and the Jake Wade Award, the highest honors given by the Football Writers' Association of America and the College Sports Information Directors of America, respectively.

A past president of the FWAA, Campbell is a member of the Texas High School Football Hall of Fame and the writers' category of the Texas Sports Hall of Fame. In 1992, Campbell was given Baylor's Distinguished Alumnus Award.

Four years later, he was named "Touchdowner of the Year" by the Houston Touchdown Club. He was one of eight members of the Texas Sports Hall of Fame's inaugural sports media class honored in 2005.

In August 1999, then-Baylor Director of Athletics Tom Stanton announced the donation of $250,000 by Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Rapoport, longtime friends of Campbell. The generous donation was earmarked for the creation of the Dave Campbell Media Center at Floyd Casey Stadium.

Campbell and his wife, Reba, also a Baylor graduate, have been married 53 years. They have two daughters, Mrs. David (Rebekah) Roche of Austin, Texas, and Mrs. Alan (Julie) Carlson of Waco.

GRANT TEAFF

Perhaps no individual is as responsible for advancing the cause of Baylor football as legendary head coach Grant Teaff.

Teaff was hired to coach Baylor's program in 1972 when many people said the Bears should drop out of Division I. When the final gun sounded on the 1992 John Hancock Bowl — Teaff's last game as a head coach — he had accomplished one of the most distinguished coaching careers in history.

Teaff finished his career 170-151-8 overall in 30 years as a head coach. He was 128-105-6 at Baylor, 83-74-4 in the Southwest Conference and 4-4 in bowl games.

He was named SWC Coach of the Year six times and national coach of the year once. He coached 16 first-team All-Americans and 83 all-conference performers.

Teaff finished his career as the nation's second-ranked coach for tenure at his present school, the fourth-ranked coach for SWC wins, third-ranked coach for games in the SWC, second-ranked coach for seasons in the SWC, sixth-ranked coach for wins by an SWC coach, ninth-ranked active coach for career wins and 20th-ranked active coach for winning percentage.

He coached 12 postseason all-star games and the other SWC schools went through 38 different head coaches during Teaff's tenure in Waco. He coached against such giants as Bear Bryant, Joe Paterno, Darrell Royal, Woody Hayes, Bo Schembechler, Vince Dooley, Shug Jordan, Tom Osborne, Frank Broyles, LaVell Edwards, Bill McCartney, Lou Holtz, Barry Switzer, Bill Yeoman, Jimmy Johnson, Johnny Majors and Hayden Fry to name just a few.

Teaff currently heads the American Football Coaches Association as the organization's executive director. The AFCA is widely recognized as the game's driving force in terms of promotions, legislative matters, ethics and professional standards. And the organization's driving force is Coach Teaff.

Teaff moved into his position as the "coaches' coach" after his highly successful 21-year stint as the head coach of the Bears. What Teaff has done with the AFCA has mirrored his accomplishments at Baylor.

DEFENSIVE BACK GREATS

Highlighted by 1986 Jim Thorpe winner Thomas Everett, who will be inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in 2006, Baylor defensive backs have been a staple in the NFL Draft.

MIKE SINGLETARY

One of the all-time greats to ever don the Green and Gold was Mike Singletary. The eventual NFL Hall of Famer arrived at Baylor in 1977 with two goals: To earn a college degree and to become the greatest defensive player in school history. Four short years later, both goals were achieved.

Everyone who saw Singletary play agrees that he was college football's greatest middle linebacker playing in the late 1970s and early 1980s. His Baylor statistics are still astounding: He holds records for most tackles in a career with 662 (second place is 370), most tackles in a season with 232 (the next closest is 144) and most tackles in a game with 33. Coach Lou Holtz, against whose Arkansas team he had those 33 tackles, called Singletary the best middle linebacker he ever coached against. Coach Woody Hayes, after seeing Singletary make 29 tackles against Ohio State, called him unstoppable. Alabama coach Paul "Bear" Bryant said that Singletary and Leroy Jordan were the only two linebackers he had ever seen who were capable of making the tackle on every single running play in a game.

Perhaps Singletary's most amazing statistic came in the area of broken football helmets. During his Baylor career Singletary hit opposing ball carriers so hard he cracked and shattered 16 of his own helmets. The Baylor football equipment staff routinely had three helmets fitted and prepared for Singletary to wear.

Singletary earned All-SWC honors four times. As a freshman he was named Southwest Conference Newcomer of the Year. As a sophomore, junior and senior he was named Southwest Conference Defensive Player of the Year. Twice he won the Davey O'Brien Award as the best football player in the Southwest United States. He was named All-America three years and consensus All-America twice. He was named to Baylor's all-decade teams of both the 1970s and 1980s. He was Baylor's defensive player of the decade in the '80s and was named to Baylor's All-Half Century Football Team.

A 1990 Baylor Athletic Hall of Fame inductee, Singletary was inducted into the Southwest Conference Hall of Fame in 1994. One year later, he was named to the Football Writers Association of America All-Quarter Century All-America Team for players who played between 1970-95.

In 1996, Singletary was honored as one of the greatest college football players ever when he was inducted into the National Football Foundation Hall of Fame.

As a professional, Singletary's accomplishments were equally impressive. He was named the NFL defensive rookie of the year, and was selected to 10 Pro Bowls and honored as an All-Pro an amazing nine times in his 12-year NFL career with the Chicago Bears. He was named the defensive MVP of the Bear's Super Bowl championship team and won the NFL Man of the Year Award as the top player in professional football based on the highest standards of play and community involvement.

In 1998, Singletary received the highest honor in football, when he was inducted into the NFL Hall of Fame in Canton, Ohio. The NCAA selected Singletary as one of its six 2005 Silver Anniversary Award winners. The award recognizes former student-athletes who completed successful collegiate careers in various sports 25 years ago and went on to excel in their chosen professions.

DR. JOHN M. LILLEY

Baylor, 1961

PRESIDENT

Dr. John M. Lilley was unanimously elected the 13th president of Baylor University by the Board of Regents on Nov. 4, 2005, and assumed his alma mater's presidency on Jan. 1, 2006.

A native of Louisiana and the son of a Baptist minister, Dr. Lilley earned three music degrees from Baylor: a bachelor of music education degree in 1961, a bachelor of music degree in 1962 and a master of music degree in 1964. He went on to earn his doctorate in music from the University of Southern California in 1971. His scholarship focused on musical works from the Baroque and modern eras.

Prior to returning to his alma mater, Dr. Lilley served for more than four years as the 14th president of the University of Nevada, Reno. He led the major research and land-grant institution through a comprehensive strategic planning process that incorporated the best ideas of faculty, staff, students and friends. He presided over an expansion of the institution's external funding, created new research centers and institutes to further its scientific outreach, and strengthened the leadership team to create a more responsive, more nimble team that focused on the academic mission of the university.

Before assuming the presidency at Nevada, Reno, Dr. Lilley was the head of Penn State Erie. Over a 21-year period, he led the four-year and graduate campus of The Pennsylvania State University through a period of dramatic growth.

During his tenure, enrollment doubled, admissions standards rose, and the college's physical campus grew from 400 to 750 acres. Under his leadership, the institution created four-year and/or graduate programs in science, engineering, and business, all of which earned accreditation from top accrediting agencies. He presided over creation of an honors program, secured a $20 million private endowment for the School of Business, and helped to found the Allegheny Mountain College Conference for athletics. Penn State Erie's athletics program grew from nine intercollegiate sports to 21 teams that were in full compliance with Title IX. He also led in the creation of 13 research centers for economic development and a 200-acre research park on campus.

In July 2002, Penn State's trustees voted to name the Erie campus' new library in Dr. Lilley's honor. At the same time, he received Penn State Erie's top honor, the Behrend Medallion, for outstanding service to Penn State and the Erie community.

Dr. Lilley began his academic career as a faculty member at the Claremont Colleges in California. In 1976, he was named assistant dean of the College of Arts and Sciences at Kansas State University, where he chaired the college's curricular affairs committee, led a reform of the college's general education requirements, and supervised the student advising program.

A great believer in community service and engagement, Dr. Lilley has served on the boards of the Economic Development Authority of Western Nevada, the Reno Philharmonic, and the Education Collaborative.

While at Penn State, he served as president of the Rotary Club and chair of the United Way board. His other board memberships included the Erie Philharmonic; WQLN, Northwest Pennsylvania's public radio and TV stations; the Americans for the Competitive Enterprise System; the Northwestern Pennsylvania Industrial Resource Council; and the Erie Plastics Corp. He also was a corporator of Hamot Health Systems Inc. and the Saint Vincent Health Center.

Professionally, he has served on the board of the American Association of State Colleges and Universities.

While a student at Baylor and USC, Dr. Lilley, a licensed Baptist minister, served as minister of music at four Baptist churches. He and his wife, Geraldine (Gerrie), have four grown children and three grandchildren. Dr. and Mrs. Lilley are members of First Baptist Church, Waco.

Baylor, 1970

CHANCELLOR

Dr. Robert B. Sloan Jr. became Baylor University's Chancellor on June 1, 2005. From 1995-2005 he served as the 12th president of Baylor University, leaving his position as founding dean of Baylor's George W. Truett Theological Seminary.

Born in Coleman, Texas, in 1949, Dr. Sloan was reared in Abilene, Texas, where he graduated from Cooper High School in 1967. He attended Baylor from 1967 to 1970 and was a member of the baseball team his freshman year. Dr. Sloan graduated ahead of his class, earning a bachelor of arts degree cum laude in 1970. He was a member of Alpha Chi National Honor Society and the Honors Program, graduating "With Distinction."

Dr. Sloan then attended Princeton Theological Seminary, where he earned the master of divinity degree magna cum laude in 1973. He conducted post-baccalaureate research in church history at the University of Bristol, England, from 1973-74 and earned the Doktor der Theologie degree insigni cum laude from the University of Basel, Switzerland, in 1978.

He joined the faculty of Baylor's Department of Religion in 1983 after holding teaching positions at Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary in Fort Worth from 1980-83. In 1990 Dr. Sloan became the first holder of the George W. Truett Chair in Evangelism at Baylor, and in 1993 he was appointed dean of Truett Seminary. Baylor regents in February 1995 named Dr. Sloan to succeed Dr. Herbert H. Reynolds as president of the University.

From 1980-1995 Dr. Sloan served as interim pastor of more than 20 churches throughout Texas (plus one in Oklahoma) while holding full-time academic positions at SWBTS and Baylor. From 1991-92 he was president of the Southwest Commission on Religious Studies. In his academic capacity he has held membership in numerous professional societies, including the Society of Biblical Literature, the Southwest Biblical Seminar, the Institute for Biblical Research, the National Association of Baptist Professors of Religion and Studiorum Novi Testamenti Societas.

Dr. Sloan has authored two books, assisted with editing several others,and has published more than 50 articles and chapters for scholarly or ecumenical journals and publications. He has presented numerous academic papers and received awards and grants for his scholarship. Dr. Sloan served as the designated "Convention Preacher" for the 1991 Baptist General Convention of Texas, which met that year in Waco.

He has held numerous civic positions in the Waco area, including school board president of the Lorena Independent School District, service on the Cooper Foundation Board, the Tadpole Foundation Board of Directors and the Waco Big 12 Task Force. In 1996, Dr. Sloan was inducted into the Little League Hall of Excellence. He also serves on the board of Texas Baptists Committed. He has been involved in numerous organizations related to higher education, including the Baylor College of Medicine, the Big 12 Athletic Conference Board of Directors, the board of the Independent Colleges and Universities of Texas, the Group of 6 (the six major athletic conferences) and the American Association of Presidents of Independent College and Universities.

Chancellor Sloan is married to the former Sue Collier of Cisco, Texas, also a 1970 graduate of Baylor. They are members of the Columbus Avenue Baptist Church of Waco. The Sloans have seven children: Charissa (B.A. (BU) '95, M.A. (BU) '96, JD (BU Law School) '99), Bryan (B.A. (BU) '98), Eraina (B.A. (BU) '99, MSEd (BU) '02), Michael (B.A. (BU) '02, M.A. (Texas Tech) '04), Alathea (B.A. (BU) '03), Sophia (B.A. (BU) '06) and Paul (a BU sophomore).

DR. HERBERT H. REYNOLDS

Trinity, 1952

PRESIDENT EMERITUS

Dr. Herbert H. Reynolds earned a bachelor of science degree from Trinity University and both his M.S. and the Ph.D. degrees from Baylor. A distinguished alumnus of both Trinity and Baylor, he holds honorary doctor of science degrees from the Baylor College of Dentistry, Seinan Gakuin University in Japan and Yonok College in Thailand.

He became Baylor's president emeritus on June 1, 2000, after serving five years as chancellor (1995-2000), 14 years as president (1981-95) and 12 years as executive vice president (1969-81). Dr. Reynolds holds a tenured university professorship of psychology, management, and higher education. Since 1994, he has been a visiting scholar/fellow at Cambridge University.

Dr. Reynolds served from 1948-68 in the U.S. Air Force, principally as director of research of a biomedical laboratory and as establishing commander of the Air Force Human Research Resources Laboratories.

He is a deacon at First Baptist Church of Waco and is a director of Community Bank and Trust of Waco. He is listed in Who's Who in America, American Men and Women of Science, Who's Who in Education, and Who's Who in the Southwest. He is a member of Phi Beta Kappa, Sigma Xi and Alpha Chi honor societies, among others. He has authored some 50 publications, and he serves on numerous boards and committees.

Dr. Reynolds received the coveted Baylor Founders Medal in 2000, the Scottish Rite Stephen F. Austin Award in 2000, the prestigious Independent Colleges and Universities of Texas Founders Medal in 2001, the Association of Fundraising Professionals Lifetime Achievement Award in 2002 and in 2003 he was named the Texas Baptist Elder Statesman.

He and his wife, Joy (B.A. '74), have three children: Kevin (B.A. '74, J.D. '76), Kent (B.B.A. '75, M.B.A. '76), and Rhonda (B.A. '83, M.B.A. '83, J.D. '86). They also have two daughters-in-law, Katy (B.S.Ed. '76) and Cathy, a son-in-law, Greg Winslett, and seven grandchildren, Jonathan, Melinda, Sam, Nicole, Jake, Trey and Dylan.

MICHAEL ROGERS

Texas Tech, 1972

FACULTY REPRESENTATIVE

Professor Michael Rogers earned a bachelor of business administration degree and graduated with honors in 1972 from Texas Tech University, where he was a member of the Beta Gamma Sigma and Phi Kappa Phi honor societies and a varsity scholarship basketball player. He received his J.D. degree from the University of Oklahoma in 1974, where he was an editor of the Oklahoma Law Review and was admitted to membership in the Order of the Coif.

Rogers was in private practice from 1975 to 1984, during which time he was a founding partner of Gilmore & Bell, a securities transactions law firm with offices in Kansas and Missouri. He is admitted to practice law in Oklahoma, Kansas and Texas.

In 1984 he joined the Baylor Law faculty, where his subjects include family law, securities regulation and alternative dispute resolution. Rogers is an experienced mediator and serves on the panel of mediators for the United States District Court Western District of Texas. He has served as chairman of the board of the McLennan County Dispute Resolution Center.

Professor Rogers has served as Baylor's Faculty Representative to the Big 12 Conference and the National Collegiate Athletic Association since 2002. He has chaired Baylor's professional sports counseling panel for more than a decade and has served on the Waco Big 12 Task Force.

Rogers is the son of the late Bob J. Rogers, who served as head basketball coach at Texas A&M University from 1957 to 1963.

IAN
McCAW
Laurentian, 1985

DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS

Ian McCaw was named Director of Athletics of Baylor's 18-sport, Big 12 intercollegiate athletics program Sept. 8, 2003. Under McCaw's leadership, the department has achieved unprecedented academic and athletic success.

In 2005-06, a school-record 13 teams advanced to postseason competition while eight teams finished the year ranked in the Top 20 nationally. Men's and women's tennis both captured Big 12 regular season championships with the women adding a tournament title. Freshman Jacob Norman won the NCAA championship in the 60 meters. Baylor recorded its second-highest finish ever in the NACDA Directors' Cup standings ranking 32nd nationally and fifth in the Big 12.

Baylor had its most successful year ever in 2004-05 which included winning the national championship in women's basketball, being national runner-up in men's tennis and finishing third in baseball at the College World Series. Baylor eclipsed the previous school record of two conference championships in one year by winning Big 12 regular season championships in baseball, women's basketball, men's tennis and women's tennis. BU added Big 12 tournament titles in women's basketball and men's tennis. Benedikt Dorsch and Zuzana Zemenova won the NCAA men's and women's singles championships while Darold Williamson won the NCAA title in the 400 meters.

A total of 10 Baylor teams finished the year ranked among the Top 25 nationally with a then school-record 12 teams advancing to NCAA post-season competition. Baylor finished third in the Big 12 and 25th in the nation in the NACDA Directors' Cup, its highest ranking ever. At the same time, Baylor student-athletes led the Big 12 with a NCAA graduate rate of 78 percent, eight points higher than the school's general student population.

In 2003-04, Baylor had a highly successful year that included winning the first NCAA team championship in school history along with five NCAA individual titles. The men's tennis team captured the NCAA team championship, while Benjamin Becker won the NCAA men's singles title, Jeremy Wariner won the NCAA indoor and outdoor 400 meter title and the 4x400-meter relay team captured the NCAA indoor and outdoor championship.

While Baylor athletics enjoyed extraordinary academic and athletic success, the department has made dramatic strides administratively, too.

A five-year strategic plan for intercollegiate athletics, Above and Beyond, was developed and implemented inclusive of department goals and objectives. An outgrowth of this plan was the creation of the five-year, $90 million development campaign Victory with Integrity which was initiated in February 2005.

Improved athletic development success has followed leading to the funding and completion of the Grant Teaff and Letterwinners Plazas at Floyd Casey Stadium; the Lt. Jack Whetsel Jr. Basketball Practice Facility; the Willis Family Equestrian Center; and numerous other projects. The athletic endowment has grown to $20 million while the Baylor Bear Foundation had its best year ever in 2005-06.

Baylor successfully completed the NCAA certification process being cited as one of only two institutions in the certification program's history to have no issues raised in its self-study. An expanded compliance staff, improved financial services area and enhanced Student Athlete Services/Life Skills unit are among the most significant internal improvements.

Record revenues in ticket sales, corporate sponsorship, television, licensing and expanded media exposure underscore the growth in external support for Baylor Athletics.

McCaw is Baylor's 12th athletic director and arrived from the University of Massachusetts, where he spent the previous year as director of athletics. McCaw was responsible for a 23-sport program and helped develop and implement a five-year strategic plan for UMass athletics.

McCaw oversaw a $2 million renovation of the men's and women's basketball and ice hockey locker room facilities at Massachusetts. In McCaw's one season in Amherst, UMass captured Atlantic 10 championships in men's soccer, men's swimming and softball. The NCAA graduation rate for UMass student-athletes was 71 percent, 12 points higher than that of the school's general student population.

McCaw previously served as director of intercollegiate athletics and campus recreation at Northeastern University from 1997-2002. He implemented a five-year strategic plan for Northeastern athletics inclusive of department goals and objectives.

Northeastern graduated 65 percent of its student-athletes during McCaw's final year at the Boston institution, 14 points higher than the institutional average. Husky student-athletes also gave back to the community, as each team was required to participate in at least one community service project annually. The success of the Northeastern athletic program on McCaw's watch extended beyond the classroom, as the program captured a school-record six America East conference titles in 2001-2002, and five teams finished among the nation's top 20. In all, nine different programs captured at least one conference title during McCaw's tenure and five earned at least one NCAA bid.

A $4 million renovation of Northeastern's Cabot Center, which included a refurbishment of the main gymnasium, an expanded speed, strength and conditioning center, a new sports medicine center, expanded and renovated locker rooms, was also completed under McCaw's direction.

McCaw went to Northeastern from Tulane University, where he served as senior associate athletic director for development and associate athletic director for external affairs from 1992-1997, being named Tulane's co-interim director of athletics in 1996. Prior to his years at Tulane, McCaw worked in a variety of athletic administrative posts at the University of Maine from 1986 to 1992 including sports information, marketing and external affairs.

Recognized as a national leader in intercollegiate athletics, McCaw serves on the NCAA Championships Cabinet and its nominating committee. He is the chair of the Big 12 championship and awards committee; a member of the television, and game management and officiating committees. He serves on the National Association of Collegiate Director's of Athletics Executive Committee.

McCaw earned his master's degree in sport management from Massachusetts in 1987, after receiving a bachelor's degree in sports administration at Laurentian University in Sudbury, Ontario, in 1985. McCaw and his wife, Heather, are members of First Baptist Church of Woodway where he serves as a deacon. They are the parents of four children: Christy, Paul, Callie and Corinne. McCaw is a member of the Board of Directors of Live Oak Classical School in Waco.

COACH (ALMA MATER)	SPORT	YEAR AT BU	05-06 REC.	CAREER REC.
JIM BARNES (McNeese State, 1994)	Volleyball	3rd	15-17	190-134

Third-year head coach has improved win total each season at BU; has top 20 recruiting class in fold for 2006.

SCOTT DREW (Butler, 1993) — Men's Basketball — 4th — 4-13 — 41-64

In fourth year of rebuilding the Baylor men's basketball program. Playing with a depleted roster each of his first three seasons, he has exceeded all expectations by leading Bears to 21 victories, including four Big 12 wins in 2005-06 without the benefit of playing a non-conference schedule.

SYLVIA FERDON (Wisconsin-Oshkosh, 1968) — Women's Golf — 13th

Baylor has made seven consecutive NCAA regional appearances, including its first-ever NCAA Championships berth in 2004.

TODD HARBOUR (Baylor, 1981) — Track/Cross Country — 7th

In second year as head track & field coach and seventh as head cross country coach. His track programs produced 17 All-Americans in 2006, including NCAA 60-meter dash champion Jacob Norman; while the women's cross country team has made three consecutive NCAA Championship appearances.

MATT KNOLL (Washburn, 1989) — Men's Tennis — 11th — 25-7 — 241-73

Has led Bears to nine straight NCAA Tournament appearances, highlighted by the school's first-ever NCAA team title in 2004, a runner-up finish in 2005 and the 2006 NCAA semifinals; six top 10 finishes and six Big 12 titles over the last seven years, and the 2004 and 2005 NCAA singles champion.

GLENN MOORE (Northwestern [La.] State, 1993) — Softball — 7th — 38-22 — 391-164

Has guided Baylor to 252 victories in six years, the most-successful run in program history. Lady Bears have made three straight NCAA Tournament appearances and captured school's first-ever regional title in 2005.

GUY MORRISS (TCU, 1973) — Football — 4th — 5-6 — 20-37

The Bears finished 2005 5-6 overall and 2-6 in Big 12 play, their most successful season since 1995. In 2005, Baylor snapped a 24-game road losing streak, won its first Big 12 road game and posted multiple Big 12 wins in the same season for the first time ever.

KIM MULKEY (Louisiana Tech, 1984) — Women's Basketball — 7th — 26-7 — 158-44

Women's Basketball Hall of Famer has won 20 or more games every year while leading Lady Bears to six straight postseason berths, including three consecutive Sweet 16's and the 2005 NCAA championship.

GREG PRIEST (East Texas State, 1993) — Men's Golf — 4th

Led the Bears to a ninth straight NCAA Regional appearance in third season at the helm.

JOEY SCRIVANO (Eastern Michigan, 1997) — Women's Tennis — 5th — 28-4 — 136-56

Baylor enjoyed its most successful season ever, winning a school-record 28 matches en route to 2006 Big 12 regular-season and tournament titles as well as its first-ever NCAA quarterfinal appearance.

STEVE SMITH (Baylor, 1986) — Baseball — 13th — 37-26 — 455-284-1

Former Bear pitcher has put Baylor baseball on the national scene with a Big 12-best eight NCAA Regional appearances, three Super Regional trips, one College World Series and a pair of league titles in 12 seasons.

GEORGE VAN LINDER (Western Michigan, 1990) — Soccer — 4th — 4-12-2 — 111-78-15

Entering fourth season at Baylor after a 2005 season highlighted by win over NCAA qualifier Iowa State.

ELLEN WHITE (Baylor, 1983) — Equestrian — 2nd

NCAA GUIDELINES

Baylor University is committed to absolute compliance with all NCAA and Big 12 Conference rules and regulations. Institutional control of athletics is a fundamental principle of NCAA legislation. It requires each institution to conduct its intercollegiate athletics programs in accordance with the rules and regulations of the NCAA. This responsibility includes ensuring that coaches, staff, and other groups representing the institution's athletics interests comply with all applicable rules.

As a result, it is important for prospects, fans, and alumni to have some understanding of the principles governing college athletics. Below are a few definitions and rules that apply to all athletic boosters.

NCAA DEFINITIONS

REPRESENTATIVE OF ATHLETICS INTERESTS (BOOSTER)

A "representative of athletics interests" (booster) is any individual or group that has ever:

- Been a member of an organization promoting Baylor athletics.
- Contributed to the Athletics Department or its booster organizations.
- Assisted in evaluating or recruiting prospective student-athletes.
- Provided benefits (e.g. employment) to prospective student-athletes, enrolled student-athletes or their family members.
- Otherwise promoted the Baylor athletics program.

Keep in mind that it is very easy to meet one or more of these criteria and once you become an athletics representative, you retain this status FOREVER!

PROSPECTIVE STUDENT-ATHLETE

A "prospect" is a high school student that has started classes for the ninth grade and also any junior college student. A student that has not started classes for the ninth grade becomes a prospect if the student receives any benefits that the institution does not provide to all prospective students in general. An individual remains a prospect until he or she starts classes at Baylor or reports for practice, whichever occurs first.

STUDENT-ATHLETE

A "student-athlete" is a student whose enrollment was solicited by an athletics staff member with the expectation that the student will participate in intercollegiate athletics. A student not solicited by an athletics staff member becomes a student-athlete when he or she joins an intercollegiate team or reports for practice.

RECRUITING

"Recruiting" is any solicitation of a prospect or the prospect's family by an authorized institutional staff member for the purpose of securing the prospect's enrollment at Baylor and participation in athletics. Athletics representatives may not be involved in the recruitment of prospects except as outlined in the following section.

CONTACT

A "contact" is any face-to-face encounter between a prospect or the prospect's parent or legal guardian and an institutional staff member or athletics representative during which any dialogue occurs.

GUIDELINES AND REMINDERS FOR BOOSTERS

- A booster may not contact a prospect, prospect's family, friends, coach or school administrator in an attempt to evaluate or recruit the prospect.
- A booster may not expend funds to entertain or provide transportation for a prospect or the prospect's family or friends.
- A booster may not write, make phone calls, or otherwise communicate with a prospect or the prospect's family or friends for recruiting purposes.
- A booster may not contribute funds to a prospect's high school or club team as a form or recruiting inducement or if solicited to do so by a collegiate coach.
- A booster may attend a prospect's athletic events without contacting the prospect or his/her family.
- A booster may send recommendation letters and newspaper clippings about a prospect in their area to Baylor's coaches.
- A booster may continue a pre-existing relationship with a prospect and his/her family as long as the relationship pre-dated the prospect's recruitment or notoriety as an athlete and the nature of the relationship is not enhanced after their notoriety as an athlete. Such a relationship may not be for recruiting purposes.
- A booster may host a current student-athlete or an entire team in their home for a meal, but only on an occasional basis.
- A booster may provide a job for a student-athlete, but the job responsibilities must be legitimate and the pay commensurate for the task.

GUIDELINES FOR EXTRA BENEFITS

An "extra benefit" is any special arrangement by an institutional employee or athletics representative to provide a prospect, a student-athlete or his or her family with a benefit not expressly authorized by the NCAA. Boosters may not provide any special arrangement considered to be an extra benefit. Examples of extra benefits include, but are not limited to:

- Gifts of money, awards or other tangible items.
- Use of vehicles or payment of transportation costs incurred by prospect, prospect's relatives or friends.
- Free or reduced housing arrangements.
- Promise of employment after graduation or employment of prospect's relatives or friends.
- Special discounts or payment arrangements.

RECRUITING GUIDELINES FOR PROSPECTS

LETTERS AND NOTES

Coaches may begin to write notes and letters to prospects beginning September 1 of their junior year in high school (September 15 after sophomore year for men's basketball prospects).

PHONE CALLS

- Prospect Calling: A coach may receive a call initiated by a prospect and paid for by the prospect at any time, including the prospect's freshman or sophomore years. Prospects may call coaches collect or by dialing 800-BAYLORU only after July 1 after their junior year.
- Football: Coaches may call a prospect once in May of their junior year and then begin making regular phone calls September 1 after their junior year. At some times of the year, calls are limited to once per week while at others calls are unlimited.
- Men's Basketball: Coaches may call a prospect once on or after June 15 of his sophomore year until July 31 of his junior year, then two calls beginning August 1 before senior year in high school.
- Women's Basketball: Coaches may call a prospect once in April and once in May of her junior year. Then they may make one call from June 1-20 after junior year and one call June 21-30 of junior year, three calls to a prospect during July following her junior year, and thereafter no more than one call per week.
- Other Sports: Coaches may call a prospect once in March of their junior year, then once per week beginning July 1 after their junior year.

UNOFFICIAL VISITS

There are no limits on the number of unofficial (unpaid) visits to Baylor a prospect may make and no age restriction on who may make unofficial visits. At each unofficial visit, a prospect may receive three (3) complimentary admissions to a home athletic event. No other expenses may be paid by Baylor. At certain times of the year, unofficial visits are prohibited so please coordinate your visit with the coaching staff.

OFFICIAL VISITS

A prospect may only make a total of five official (paid) visits and only one official visit to Baylor. A prospect may not make an official visit until the first day of classes of their senior year (January 1 of junior year for men's basketball prospects). All official visits will be coordinated by the coaching staffs.

BIG 12 CONFERENCE

Fresh off its 10th anniversary season, the Big 12 Conference begins its second decade of competition in 2006-07. While there have been many proud accomplishments through the first 10 years, the conference and its members anticipate continued success.

Through its first 10 years, the Big 12 claimed 28 team and 310 individual NCAA titles. During this past season, conference programs captured national championships in football (Texas), women's indoor track & field (Texas), wrestling (Oklahoma State) and men's golf (Oklahoma State). In addition, 12 individual event titles were also won by Big 12 student-athletes.

The 2004-05 campaign marked the most successful in conference history with six NCAA championships. Baylor won the crown for women's basketball, becoming the first Big 12 squad to win in that sport. Colorado won both the men's and women's cross country trophies, just the fourth school in NCAA annals to win both in the same year. Oklahoma State regained the top spot in wrestling, winning the national title for the 33rd time. Texas captured its fourth women's outdoor track & field crown, along with its sixth national championship in baseball.

The Big 12 leads all conferences with five appearances in the BCS National Championship game. A Big 12 team has played for the football national championship five of the last six years, and each of the last three. In basketball, an unprecedented eight men's and women's basketball teams have advanced to their respective Final Fours in the past five seasons as the Big 12 continues its place among the elite intercollegiate athletic conferences.

The Big 12 and its member institutions are committed to a competitive environment where sportsmanship and fair play take center stage. Whether on the field, in the classroom, or within the community the student-athletes, administrators, coaches and game officials of the Big 12 support the highest ideals in sportsmanship.

Competitive excellence, scholarships and sportsmanship are all equal components of the Big 12's philosophy. All-Big 12 teams and All-Big 12 Academic squads are recognized for each sport at the end of their respective seasons.

At the end of each academic year, the Conference honors its top male and female student-athletes with the Big 12 Athlete of the Year and Big 12 Sportsperson of the Year awards.

Institutions can also nominate student-athletes for the prestigious Dr. Prentice Gautt Postgraduate Scholarships at the end of each academic year. A total of 153 scholars have received more than $845,000 in postgraduate financial aid through the first nine years of the program.

The Big 12 sponsors 21 sports. Men's squads include baseball, basketball, cross country, football, golf, indoor track & field, outdoor track & field, swimming & diving, tennis and wrestling. Women's teams are fielded in basketball, cross country, golf, gymnastics, indoor track & field, outdoor track & field, soccer, softball, swimming, tennis and volleyball.

The conference is made up of 12 institutions that have shared many traditional rivalries throughout their histories. Member schools include - Baylor University, University of Colorado, Iowa State University, University of Kansas, Kansas State University, University of Missouri, University of Nebraska, University of Oklahoma, Oklahoma State University, University of Texas, Texas A&M University and Texas Tech University.

The institutions created a league that encompasses seven states, over 42 million people and more than 18 million television households within its geographic footprint.

The conference conducts championships for 20 of its 21 sports. Each championship helps to determine teams and/or individuals that will represent the Conference in national postseason competition. The winner of the Big 12 football championship game earns the league's berth into the prestigious Bowl Championship Series.

The Big 12 is under the direction of its third commissioner, Kevin L. Weiberg, who took over the reigns in December 1998. Weiberg has led the Big 12 into additional football bowl agreements and expanded television opportunities for all sports through contracts with ABC/ESPN, FSN, TBS and CSTV.

In its 10-year history, the conference has distributed $807.2 million to its 12 member institutions.

The Big 12 staff administers to over 4,600 student-athletes in 21 sports. The conference headquarters will move to Irving, Texas, from Dallas in August 2006.

GAME RECAPS

BAYLOR 28, SMU 23

SEPT. 3 • GERALD J. FORD STADIUM • DALLAS, TEXAS

Paul Mosley rushed for 105 yards and three touchdowns as Baylor rallied from an eight-point, third-quarter deficit to defeat SMU 28-23 in the season opener for both teams at Gerald J. Ford Stadium in Dallas, Texas.

Mosley joined Brandon Whitaker (110 yards) to become the first Baylor running back duo to both eclipse the century mark in rushing yards since 1996. Both established career highs for rushing yards and carries. Mosley's three touchdowns also were a career high as he posted his second career 100-yard game.

Trailing 14-6 after an SMU touchdown early in the third quarter, Baylor scored 15 unanswered points to take control of the game. The Bears used 12 plays to march 76 yards on the series immediately following the SMU scoring drive; Mosley capped Baylor's scoring drive with a 4-yard plunge. Shawn Bell then connected with Jason Smith for a two-point conversion, tying the game 14-14 with 6:21 remaining in the third quarter.

That score stood until the fourth quarter when the Bears put together a 14-play, 93-yard drive that culminated in a Mosley 1-yard scoring run.

Baylor forced SMU to punt on the ensuing possession; however, Shaun Rochon muffed the punt, and SMU recovered at the Baylor 18. The Bears' defense stood strong, though, limiting the Mustangs to three yards. SMU settled for a field goal, pulling to within four at 21-17.

The Bears put the game nearly out of reach on the next drive, rushing 10 straight times for an 80-yard scoring drive that ended with a Mosley 12-yard TD run.

SMU answered with an eight-play, 53-yard scoring drive. Two plays after Alton Widemon bobbled a would-be interception in the back of the end zone, Tony Eckert connected with Bobby Chase from three yards out. The Mustangs attempted a two-point conversion, but Richuel Massey was stopped on the one. Dominique Zeigler then recovered SMU's onside kickoff, sealing the Baylor victory.

Baylor out-gained SMU 269-129 in the second half. Of SMU's 129 yards, 105 came on the Mustangs' first (52 yards) and final (53 yards) drives of the half. The Bears held SMU to just 24 yards on the Mustangs' other four drives of the second half.

Bell finished the game 23-of-40 for 198 yards. After a rough first-half in which he was 9-of-20 for just 56 yards and two interceptions, Bell rebounded in the second half, going 14-of-20 for 144 yards.

BAYLOR 48, SAMFORD 14

SEPT. 10 • FLOYD CASEY STADIUM • WACO, TEXAS

Shawn Bell threw for 166 yards and two touchdowns and Jamaal Harper returned a fumble 29 yards for a score in Baylor's 48-14 victory over Samford at Floyd Casey Stadium. The win gave Baylor its first 2-0 start since 2001.

A week after breaking a 24-game road losing streak by beating SMU, Baylor had its highest-scoring first half in three years, building a 24-7 halftime lead in the home opener against the Division I-AA Bulldogs.

Harper's second career fumble return for a TD and both of Bell's TD passes — 14 yards to Paul Mosley and 32 yards to Dominique Zeigler — came before halftime. Shaun Rochon returned a punt 85 yards for a score in the final minute of the game, giving the Bears their most points since beating Samford 50-12 in 2002.

Rochon's punt return, which tied for the sixth-longest in Baylor history, was the first punt return for a touchdown by a Bear since Thomas Everett's 75-yard jaunt against Wyoming in 1985.

Harper's return for a TD and Rochon's return for a TD give Baylor 11 non-offensive scores under head coach Guy Morriss.

The Baylor defense had its share of ugly moments. The Bears allowed four third-down conversions on Samford's first touchdown drive, then committed two personal fouls on the other. Another personal foul facemask penalty wiped out a sack on third and 12.

But Harper scored, and James Todd's diving interception in the third quarter set up another Baylor touchdown.

Colin Allred sacked Samford quarterback Parker Gargis early in the second quarter. Harper scooped up the ball and ran along the right sideline, managing to stay in bounds after Gargis grabbed at his feet near the 10, to make it 17-7.

Baylor appeared to have another fumble recovery in the second quarter, but the runner was ruled down after the play was reviewed. Adcock was sacked on the next play and the Bulldogs punted, setting up the Bears' nine-play, 73-yard TD drive just before halftime. Bell hit Zeigler streaking wide open down the middle for the 32-yarder.

Todd dove in front of receiver Stewart Johnson at the Samford 25 midway through the third quarter. Six plays later, Brandon Whitaker plunged in from a yard out, the last play for Bell, who was 16-of-26 passing.

Terrance Parks finished the game at quarterback for Baylor and threw a 49-yard TD pass to Mikail Baker in the fourth quarter. It was the first reception of Baker's career.

BAYLOR 20, ARMY 10

SEPT. 17 • MICHIE STADIUM • WEST POINT, N.Y.

Baylor overcame three turnovers and a handful of missed opportunities for a 20-10 victory at Army. The victory pushed Baylor to 3-0 for the first time since 1996 and only the 25th time in the program's history.

Shaun Rochon's 10-yard touchdown run on a wide receiver reverse around left end with 3:46 remaining sealed the deal for the Bears, who never trailed after a Ryan Havens' 39-yard field goal on the game's opening drive.

Baylor out-gained Army 351-284, bolstered by a 146-56 advantage on the ground. It marked the second consecutive game in which the Bears held an opponent to fewer than 60 yards rushing after limiting Samford to 55 yards the week before.

Havens split the uprights from 28 yards out in the waning seconds of the first quarter, giving Baylor a 6-0 lead. Army cut that lead in half midway through the second quarter on Joe Riley's 49-yard field goal.

Baylor found the end zone 42 seconds before halftime as Shawn Bell capped the Bears' eight-play, 59-yard drive with a 7-yard touchdown pass to Paul Mosley.

Neither team scored again until Rochon's fourth-quarter TD run put the Bears ahead 20-7. Army responded with a seven-play, 61-yard drive, which culminated with Zac Dahman's 13-yard TD pass to Corey Anderson.

Army attempted an onside kick on the ensuing kickoff, but Dominique Zeigler recovered, allowing Baylor's offense to run out the clock.

Mosley finished with 77 yards on 16 carries, while Brandon Whitaker added 60 yards on 12 totes. Bell was 20-of-30 for 205 yards and a touchdown but also was intercepted twice. Trent Shelton led six Baylor receivers with five catches for 84 yards.

Baylor's defensive unit was led by Maurice Lane, who registered 14 tackles. The Bears tallied five sacks on the day; M.T. Robinson led the way with two sacks.

TEXAS A&M 16, BAYLOR 13 OT

OCT. 1 • KYLE FIELD • COLLEGE STATION, TEXAS

Courtney Lewis scored on a 13-yard toss sweep left as Texas A&M defeated Baylor 16-13 in overtime. It marked the second consecutive season in which the Bears and the Aggies went to overtime.

Baylor led 10-7 midway through the fourth quarter before the Aggies put together a 17-play, 86-yard drive that culminated in a 25-yard Todd Pegram field goal with 56 seconds remaining.

That sent the game to overtime. On the extra period's first play, Baylor's Shaun Rochon rushed 19 yards on an end-around reverse to the Texas A&M 6. However, the Bears could not get into the end zone and settled for a 21-yard Ryan Havens field goal.

Baylor's inability to get into the end zone in overtime was a continuation of missed red-zone opportunities that plagued the Bears all day. Six times in regulation, Baylor penetrated the Texas A&M red zone but managed only 10 points. The Bears were stopped on fourth-and-one once, fumbled once and missed two field goals.

The end result was a bitter loss for Baylor, which out-gained Texas A&M 347-287. The Aggies put together an 11-play, 61-yard drive late in the third quarter. Prior to that drive, Baylor's defense had limited the Aggies to 67 yards of offense and three first downs on 29 total plays.

Baylor scored on its opening drive for the third consecutive game, this time thanks to a Havens 26-yard field goal. The key play in the drive was a Paul Mosley 57-yard run on third-and-one that put the Bears at the Aggies' 14. However, after Baylor pushed to a first-and-goal at the A&M 3, the drive stalled.

After an exchange of punts, the Aggies answered with a five-play, 45-yard drive that ended with Jorvorski Lane's 1-yard TD run. One play prior to Lane's scoring run, Lewis fumbled the ball through the side of the end zone for an apparent Baylor touchback. However, Lewis, whose knee had not yet touched the ground, was ruled down before the fumble. The play was not eligible for review.

Baylor recaptured the lead on its first drive of the second half when Shawn Bell connected with Trent Shelton from three yards out to put the Bears ahead 10-7.

Mosley finished with 133 yards, a career best, on 22 carries. Bell was 25-of-45 for 222 yards and one touchdown; however, he also was sacked five times for 40 yards. Rochon led Baylor receivers with seven catches.

Baylor's defense held Lewis to 58 yards rushing and forced A&M quarterback Reggie McNeal into a less-than-stellar day (12-of-31 for 132 yards and two interceptions).

GAME RECAPS

BAYLOR 23, IOWA STATE 13

OCT. 8 • JACK TRICE STADIUM • AMES, IOWA

Paul Mosley's 1-yard TD run with one minute, 36 seconds remaining iced Baylor's first-ever Big 12 road victory as the Bears defeated Iowa State 23-13.

Baylor entered the contest 0-37 on the road in the Big 12 and riding a 38-game losing streak in all conference games away from home. The Bears' last league victory on the road was Nov. 11, 1995 — a 48-7 decision over SMU in the old Southwest Conference.

Ryan Havens' 36-yard field goal put Baylor ahead to stay at 16-13 with 12:19 left. Havens earlier had true placements from 21 yards and 49 yards, the longest Baylor field goal since 2001. He established a career high with three field goals made on the day.

Iowa State led 13-10 at halftime but was doomed by two costly fumbles in the second half. Baylor followed the second fumble with a 12-play, 81-yard drive that ended in Mosley's game-clinching TD run.

When it was over, the Bears acted as if they had done this before. The players and coaches shook hands with their Iowa State counterparts, then walked calmly up the incline to their dressing room.

A critical play came in the third quarter with Iowa State leading by three and in position to take control. Jamaal Harper got a helmet on the ball as Cyclone RB Greg Coleman reached the Baylor 1-yard line; Coleman fumbled into the end zone, where the Bears' Maurice Lane recovered for a touchback.

After an exchange of punts, Willie Andrews' 15-yard return gave Baylor the ball at the Iowa State 35; five plays later, Havens kicked a 21-yard field goal to knot the score 13-13.

Iowa State responded to Havens' go-ahead field goal with another drive, marching from its 20 to a first down at the Baylor 25. But Tyler Lindstrom forced R.J. Sumrall to fumble and Josh Bell recovered for Baylor at the 19.

The Bears then drove to their game-clinching touchdown, helped by quarterback Shawn Bell's 16-yard run on third-and-14 from his 31 and a later personal foul on Iowa State.

Baylor set the tone early. Andrews sacked Brett Meyer for a 7-yard loss on the game's second play. The Bears quickly forced an ISU punt, which Andrews returned 16 yards to the Cyclones' 28.

After a holding penalty pushed the Bears back to the 38, Bell hit Dominique Zeigler sprinting straight down the field for a TD.

NEBRASKA 23, BAYLOR 14

OCT. 15 • FLOYD CASEY STADIUM • WACO, TEXAS

Zac Taylor threw two TD passes and led Nebraska to scores on four of its first five drives, then the Huskers' defense made it hold up in a 23-14 victory over Baylor.

Nebraska's win was not easy, though, as Baylor took another step toward respectability even in defeat. Coming off its first-ever Big 12 road win, the Bears led 7-3 in the second quarter and were driving for a go-ahead score late in the third quarter after a wild touchdown got them within 20-14.

But Nebraska forced a punt, then got a 22-yard field goal from Jordan Congdon, his third of the game. That stretched the lead to nine points, meaning two scores, and Baylor could not recover.

Terrance Parks replaced Shawn Bell at quarterback and his first drive ended with a fumble by Dominique Zeigler. Parks threw interceptions the next two times the Bears had the ball.

Even with Baylor closing the game by turning the ball over on three of its last five snaps, the Bears were a lot tougher on the Cornhuskers than they were in a 32-point loss in 2004.

Taylor was 18-of-32 for 168 yards, but he was extremely effective through the middle of the third quarter, when his first pass of the second half produced a 21-yard touchdown and a 20-7 lead.

At that point, Nebraska had scored on every possession except one that ended with a fumble inside Baylor's 10-yard line. Taylor also threw a 4-yard touchdown to Terrence Nunn.

Cory Ross ran for 93 yards and Cody Glenn added 41 for the Cornhuskers, who were content with running most of the second half.

Bell drove Baylor 81 yards on the game's opening series, converting twice on third-and-long and overcoming another precarious situation when an interception was erased by a roughing penalty. He scrambled for a 5-yard touchdown on the next play for a 7-0 lead.

The Bears' only points after that came in a bizarre way. Trent Shelton broke two tackles on a 52-yard completion, then fumbled at the 1-foot line and Zeigler recovered in the end zone. Officials initially ruled him down at the 1, but changed the call after Baylor called timeout.

Bell was 15-of-24 for 180 yards, one touchdown and no interceptions. Parks was 2-of-6 for 22 yards with no touchdowns and two picks.

OKLAHOMA 37, BAYLOR 30 2OT

OCT. 22 • GAYLORD FAMILY MEMORIAL STADIUM • NORMAN, OKLA.

Rhett Bomar threw a 21-yard touchdown pass to Juaquin Iglesias in the second overtime to lift Oklahoma to a 37-30 win over Baylor and maintain the Sooners' perfect record in the series.

The Bears' hopes for their first win against Oklahoma ended when Shawn Bell's fourth-down pass fell incomplete. It was Baylor's second overtime loss in four games.

The Bears rallied from 11 points down to pull within two on a 55-yard touchdown pass from Bell to Dominique Zeigler with 1:17 left. Bell then scrambled for the 2-point conversion to tie the game at 27-27.

After the teams exchanged field goals in the first overtime period, Bomar dropped back on third-and-6 and found Iglesias in the right corner of the end zone.

With Adrian Peterson out with a sprained ankle and backup Kejuan Jones suspended, Jacob Gutierrez was forced to make his first start at tailback and had 173 yards and two touchdowns on 30 carries.

Gutierrez had touchdown runs of 7 and 28 yards as the Sooners scored 24 points in the second quarter. After Baylor took an early 6-0 lead, the Sooners scored on four consecutive possessions and appeared to be in control with a 24-13 halftime lead.

Shaun Rochon, who had a 98-yard kickoff return for a touchdown earlier in the game, pulled the Bears within five at 24-19 late in the third quarter when he caught a 7-yard touchdown pass from Bell. Rochon caught the ball at the 5, spun out of Chijioke Onyenegecha's tackle and walked into the end zone.

Garrett Hartley stretched Oklahoma's lead to 27-19 with a 25-yard field goal with 9:17 to play, and Baylor went three-and-out on its next possession. Nick Moore gave the Bears a chance when he forced a Gutierrez fumble with 2:39 to play and Julian Hill recovered at the Bears' 18.

Bell finished 20-of-44 for 228 yards and three touchdowns. It was Bell's sixth consecutive game with at least one TD pass, the longest streak by a Baylor quarterback since 1987. Zeigler had 141 yards on nine catches.

On a third-and-10, Bell found Zeigler deep down the middle, where Zeigler had beaten safety Lewis Baker. Bell threw a strike to Zeigler, who caught the ball near the Oklahoma 20 and out-raced Baker to the end zone.

Baylor struck first with a 20-yard field goal in overtime, but Oklahoma tied the game again on Hartley's 39-yarder.

#17 TEXAS TECH 28, BAYLOR 0

OCT. 29 • FLOYD CASEY STADIUM • WACO, TEXAS

In front of the largest Floyd Casey Stadium crowd since 1996, Baylor dropped a 28-0 decision to 17th-ranked Texas Tech on homecoming.

The final score was not indicative of how close the game actually was as Tech scored three times in the game's final 11 minutes to pull away from the Bears.

Trailing 6-0, Baylor got the ball back on the first play of the fourth quarter on a Texas Tech punt. However, the Bears could not manage a first down and were forced to punt.

On Tech's ensuing drive, the Red Raiders marched 68 yards on five plays for its first touchdown drive of the game. Facing third-and-6 from midfield, Tech quarterback Cody Hodges found Robert Johnson for a short gain across the middle. However, Johnson slipped three tackles and out-raced another would-be tackler all the way to the end zone. The Raiders converted on a two-point conversion attempt, pushing their lead to 14-0.

Tech added another touchdown with just under six minutes to play. Taurean Henderson rushed 60 yards to the Baylor 13, the longest play from scrimmage against Baylor's defense since its 2004 season opener. Three plays later, Henderson plunged into the end zone from 2 yards out.

A 65-yard Antonio Huffman interception return set up Tech's last score — a 1-yard Henderson TD run with 2:48 to play.

Baylor's defense dominated the first 49 minutes of the game before Johnson's 50-yard TD reception. The Bears held Tech to only a pair of first-half field goals and 202 total yards through the game's first three quarters. However, the Raiders racked up 173 yards from scrimmage in the game's final quarter.

The Bears missed a 36-yard field goal attempt late in the first half's final minute. Baylor also took another field goal off the board. Ryan Havens made true on a 22-yarder on the first drive of the second half, but Tech was called for running into the kicker. The Bears elected to accept the penalty, setting up fourth-and-goal at the 2. However, Paul Mosley's dive to the end zone landed just short, giving the Raiders the ball at their own 1.

Baylor signal caller Shawn Bell finished 13-of-21 for 127 yards and was intercepted twice. Bell, who was lifted on Baylor's first drive of the fourth quarter, failed to find the end zone for the first time in seven games. Bell's replacement, Terrance Parks, was 8-of-17 for 77 yards; he was intercepted once and fumbled once.

#2 TEXAS 62, BAYLOR 0

NOV. 5 • FLOYD CASEY STADIUM • WACO, TEXAS

Ramonce Taylor ran for 102 yards and three touchdowns and had a 42-yard catch from Vince Young for another score as second-ranked Texas defeated Baylor 62-0 at Floyd Casey Stadium. It was the Longhorns' 16th consecutive win and eighth straight against the Bears.

Young had 351 total yards in just more than three quarters, going 16-of-27 passing for 298 yards and two touchdowns, and rushing for 53 yards on eight carries. Jamaal Charles also ran for two scores for Texas.

On Texas' first offensive snap after halftime, Young faked a handoff to Taylor and rolled to his right. The quarterback then stopped, avoided a defender and threw back to Taylor, who was running alone down the field. As he neared the end zone, Taylor did a Superman-like dive, drawing a 15-yard penalty.

That was their sixth one-play scoring drive this season. Taylor had scoring runs of 3 and 11 yards after that, with a 55-yard TD pass from Young to Quan Cosby in between.

With Texas up 55-0 and already with 546 of their 645 total yards, Young and Taylor were finished. Little-used senior quarterback Matt Nordgren took over with 11:46 left, and scored on a 29-yard run on which he fumbled at the 15, but had the ball bounce back into his hands.

Terrance Parks got his second career start at quarterback for Baylor, ahead of Shawn Bell. Parks was 10-of-23 for 89 yards with two interceptions, and the Bears had only 201 total yards.

Baylor's best scoring chance came in the third quarter, but Ryan Havens' 30-yard field goal attempt was blocked by Robert Killebrew.

Charles got the game's first score on a 4-yard run, a play after Limas Sweed's impressive one-handed catch for a 45-yard gain. With two defenders on his back, Sweed reached out his left hand, grabbed the ball on a sprint and secured it before being tackled.

Charles' second TD came with 2:58 left in the first half, when he went wide to get away from a defender, then cut inside another to make it 20-0. Taylor added a 9-yard TD run before the half.

MISSOURI 31, BAYLOR 16

NOV. 12 • FAUROT FIELD/MEMORIAL STADIUM • COLUMBIA, MO.

A furious fourth-quarter comeback spurned by backup quarterback Shawn Bell fell short as Baylor dropped a 31-16 decision at Missouri. The loss eliminated the Bears from bowl contention.

Bell, who started the season No. 1 at the signal-caller position for the Bears, entered the game with 2:45 remaining in the third quarter and Baylor trailing 24-0. In his first action since the third quarter of the Oct. 29 game against Texas Tech, Bell led the Bears on a six-play, 73-yard touchdown drive immediately after entering the game. It was Baylor's first scoring drive since the first overtime period of the Oct. 22 game at Oklahoma, ending a scoreless span of 164 minutes and five seconds.

After Baylor's defense forced Missouri into a three-and-out on the Tigers' ensuing drive, Bell again led the Bears into scoring position. This time, Baylor came away with a field goal, capping a 10-play, 49-yard march.

Missouri managed just one first down on its next drive and again had to punt. Bell this time led Baylor to paydirt, finding Carl Sims from 16 yards out to cap a three-play, 52-yard drive and pull the Bears to within eight points at 24-16.

However, that was as close as the Bears would get. Missouri quarterback Brad Smith danced down the right sideline for his second of two 56-yard TD runs on the day on Missouri's next drive. Baylor drove to the Missouri 10 on its next drive but came up empty. After another Tigers' three-and-out, the Bears drove to the Missouri 4 before again failing to find the end zone on fourth down.

Baylor had 80 yards of offense through the game's first 42-plus minutes of play, just seven yards more than the Bears produced on the first drive after Bell entered the game. The Bears finished the day with 347 yards of total offense, outgaining Missouri 267-98 in the game's final 17-plus minutes.

Bell finished the day 18-of-29 for 206 yards and two TDs. Starter Terrance Parks struggled, going 9-of-21 for 64 yards and one interception, which was returned for the game's first touchdown.

Missouri gained the majority of its yards on the ground, tallying 298 yards rushing against the Bears. Smith, who was held to just 72 yards on 9-of-23 passing, led all runners with 161 yards on 21 carries and three scores.

Brandon Whitaker led the Baylor ground game with 79 yards on 10 carries, including a career-long 44-yard run on the Bears' first scoring drive.

BAYLOR 44, OKLAHOMA STATE 34

NOV. 19 • FLOYD CASEY STADIUM • WACO, TEXAS

Paul Mosley had three 1-yard TD runs and Colin Allred returned an interception for a score in Baylor's season-ending 44-34 victory that gave the Bears a significant second Big 12 win. Baylor ended a five-game losing streak to win more than one Big 12 game in the same season for the first time.

The Bears built a 38-0 lead in the first half, when Oklahoma State had five of its eight turnovers and a penalty that wiped out a 95-yard kickoff return.

By ending coach Guy Morriss' third season with five wins, the Bears posted their most victories since going 7-4 in 1995, their last winning season and a year after their last bowl appearance. Baylor had won three games in each of the last four seasons.

Mosley's third TD run, which made it 28-0 early in the second quarter, came one play after Jamaal Harper intercepted a pass by Bobby Reid and returned it 15 yards.

Daniel McLemore returned the ensuing kickoff 95 yards, but the touchdown was erased by a holding penalty and the ball taken back to the Cowboys 14. Al Pena replaced Reid and his pass on the first play was intercepted by Allred and returned 25 yards. It was the first career interception for the linebacker, one of 19 Baylor seniors playing in their last game.

Shawn Bell was 22-of-35 for 272 yards and a 36-yard TD to Shaun Rochon in his return as Baylor's starting quarterback. Bell started the first eight games before Terrance Parks took over for the Texas and Missouri games.

Mosley, who had 20 carries for 44 yards, ran for TDs to end the first two Baylor drives.

After the first touchdown, Mike Hamilton fumbled on Oklahoma State's next snap. The Bears needed 10 plays to go 38 yards, with Bell hitting Dominique Zeigler for 26 yards on third-and-20 and Rochon for 18 yards on third-and-8, before Mosley's second touchdown.

The Cowboys got within 38-21 when Julius Crosslin had a 1-yard TD run and Pena threw a 42-yard TD to D'Juan Woods in the third quarter.

Woods caught a 14-yard TD with 50 seconds left before the Cowboys recovered an onside kick that Baylor could not handle. Pena threw a 3-yard TD to Brandon Pettigrew, but Oklahoma State could not recover another onside attempt.

1901 Baylor blanks Texas A&M 47-0, one of three consecutive wins to close the season. In those three games, the Bears outscored their opponents 128-9 en route to the school's first five-win season.

ALL-TIME RESULTS

NOTE: The rankings indicated from 1936 through 2005 in all instances are at game time, based on The Associated Press poll. Baylor's ranking is listed first, the opponent's ranking second. Early season games from 1936 through 1949 have no dash because the first polls in those seasons were not taken until after the season began. From 1936 to 1960 and again from 1968 until 1988, the AP ranked the top 20 teams, from 1961 to 1967 the top 10 and since 1989, the top 25. The source for the weekly rankings from Oct. 19, 1936, through Jan. 3, 1984, was Football Rankings, College Teams in The Associated Press Poll, 1936-1984, compiled by Lowell R. Greunke (Jefferson, N.C., McFarland & Co., Inc., 1984).

2003 The Guy Morriss era begins as he is named the program's 24th head coach. In his first season, Baylor upsets two-time defending Big 12 North champion Colorado.

2004 Baylor ends a 20-year drought against Texas A&M, shocking the 16th-ranked Aggies 35-34 in a thrilling overtime affair. The Bears' two-point conversion in the first overtime period was the difference.

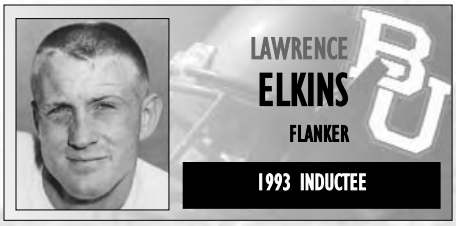
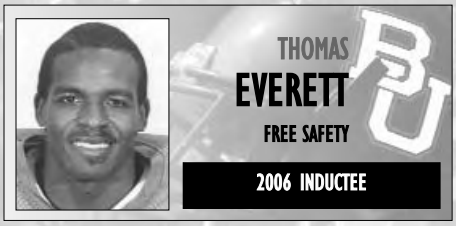
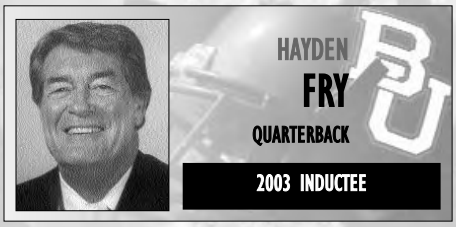
COLLEGE FOOTBALL HALL OF FAME



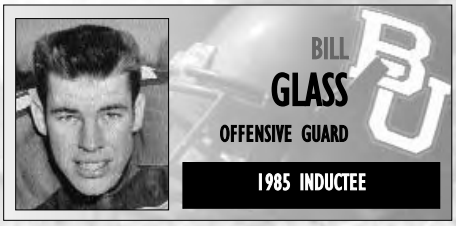
In an era when running was considered the only way to pattern an offense, flanker Lawrence Elkins turned college football upside-down as the outstanding receiver in Coach John Bridgers' pro-style attack. The first two-time consensus All-American (1963-64) in school history still shares Baylor's single-game record for receptions with 12, which he set against Texas in 1963. In 1963 he set an NCAA record with 70 catches for 873 yards as the Bears defeated LSU in the Bluebonnet Bowl.



A two-time first-team All-America selection, free safety Thomas Everett earned the 1986 Jim Thorpe Award as the nation's top defensive back. Twice named Southwest Conference Most Valuable Player and first-team all-conference, he was voted the conference's Athlete of the Year for the 1986-87 school year. Named to Baylor's 1980s All-Decade Team, Everett was a fourth-round selection of the Pittsburgh Steelers in the 1987 NFL Draft. He enjoyed nine seasons in the NFL with the Steelers, Dallas Cowboys and Tampa Bay Buccaneers.

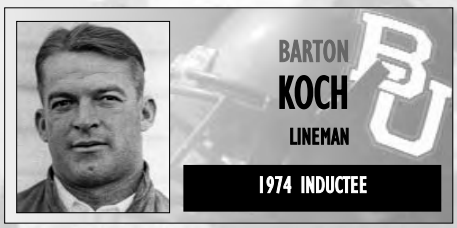


Hayden Fry was a four-year letterwinner for Baylor, quarterbacking the Bears to Top 20 Associated Press rankings in 1949 and 1950. He made his most-notable mark on the college football world as a coach, spending 20 seasons as the head coach at Iowa. Fry was inducted into the Texas Sports Hall of Fame in 1997.

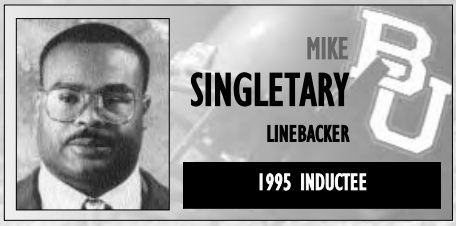


Bill Glass was a unanimous consensus All-American guard on one of Baylor's greatest teams. His senior season, 1956, he helped the Bears to a 9-2 record and a Sugar Bowl victory over previously undefeated Tennessee. He was voted the Houston Post's SWC Most Valuable Player that year. After a long NFL career, Glass become one of the nation's most noted evangelists. He was inducted into the Texas Sports Hall of Fame in 1987.

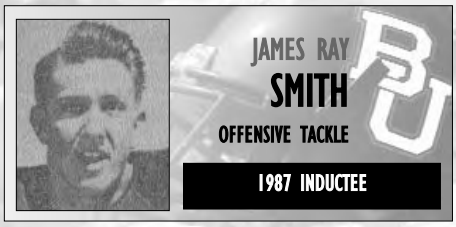
Morley Jennings spent 15 seasons as the Bears' head football coach, compiling a record of 83-60-6 from 1926-40. Ten of Jennings' BU teams had winning seasons, including the 1935 squad which went 8-3. From 1937-39 his Bears went 21-8-1. Among the great players he coached were Barton Koch, Sam Boyd, Billy Patterson and Jack Russell.



Barton "Botchey" Koch was considered by every football expert to be the greatest lineman of his era. He played in the days of one-platoon football and was called unstoppable both ways. In his senior season of 1930 he made a huge breakthrough for the Southwest Conference by becoming the league's first consensus All-American. He was elected to the Texas Sports Hall of Fame in 1967.



Singletary was the greatest middle linebacker in his era. A three-time consensus All-SWC pick and two-time unanimous All-American, Singletary also made the 1970-95 All-Quarter Century All-American Team. During his career with the Chicago Bears, he was named All-Pro eight times and won the NFL Man of the Year Award, an honor based on the highest standards of play and community involvement. Inducted into the Texas Sports Hall of Fame in 1995, he received an NCAA Silver Anniversary Award in 2006.



James Ray Smith won All-American honors from his tackle spot for the Bears in 1953 and 1954. His senior year the Bears went 7-4 and played Auburn in the Gator Bowl. After a long career in the NFL, Smith has remained active in college football, having served as president of the Cotton Bowl Athletic Association. He was selected as a Cleveland Browns Legend in 2004.

Grant Teaff became Baylor's winningest coach over a 21-year span from 1972 to 1992. He compiled a 128-105-6 record and led the Bears to a pair of Southwest Conference championships and eight bowl games. While posting 12 winning seasons, Teaff also guided six of his Baylor squads to season-ending national rankings. He was selected to the Texas Sports Hall of Fame in 1995.
